STATE PRIMARY ELECTIONS STUDDLED WITH MANY BRISK CONTESTS

Battle of Ballots Next Tuesday to Clear Field For Elections in November—Three Independent Candidates in Local Representative Fights Create Interest

DR. OTIS ALLEN
Candidate for State Treasurer

ABEL R. CAMPBELL
Candidate for Governor's Council

Three local candidates for state representative, one from the 14th district and two from the 15th district, will have their names placed on the state election ballots, although they will not appear on the primary ballots next Tuesday.

The three men are Alexander E.
Rountree in the 14th district and Paul J. Angelo and Daniel F. Morlary in the 15th district. For some unknown reason, their primary nomination papers, filed in due season at the office of the Lowell election commission, did not reach the office of the secretary.

FIERCE FIGHTING CONTINUES IN THREE SECTORS IN CHINA

Added Fury Given to Battles by Movement of Airplanes into War Zone and Reported Concentration of Chinese Battleships For Action

SHANGHAI, Sept. 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—Fierce fighting in three sectors between the armies of rival Chinese military governors, contesting for possession of Shanghai, continued unabated today, but added fury, was given to the battles by the movement of airplanes into the war zone and the reported concentration of Chinese bat-

MIDDLESEX NORTH POMONA GRANGE HOLDS FALL MEETING

Odd Fellows' Hall Decorated With Season's Offerings —Exhibition of Garden Flowers, Fruits and Vegetables—Typical Grange Dinner Served—Big Meeting

Familiar emblems of the fall harvest season, with fulsome colored offerings from the fields of Pomona, Flora and Ceres, cultivated and garnered lavishly by Middlesex county husbandmen and wives, decorated the interior of Odd Fellows hall, Bridge street, today. The exposition of Nature's bounties created a beautiful setting for the opening meeting of the fall and winter season of Middlesex North-Pomona grange.
A splendid program was arranged for the initial meeting after the summer discontinuance of regular grange business sessions. The morning exercises were late in starting, owing to the tardy arrival of some of the members from outlying towns such as Dunstable, Tyngsboro, Wilmington, West Chelmsford and Burlington. Some grangers brought in guests to spend the day in Lowell with the Pomonas.
The big feature of today's rally was an exhibition of canned fruits, vegetables, garden flowers and fresh fruits in the shape of apples, grapes, plums, etc. Prosperous out-of-town grangers brought in handsome specimens of Macintosh and Gravenstein apples, the massed displays being placed on the

DRUNKENNESS STILL ON INCREASE HERE

There were 243 arrests for drunkenness during the month of August, according to figures compiled by Prebation Officer Joseph Cronin. Of this number, 23 were women, a record for the current year. During the month of August last year, there were 221 arrests for drunkenness. Seventy-five of last month's offenders were placed on probation and 27 were released. If the present rate continues, says the probation officer, the end of the year will witness an increase of more than 300 offenders over last year.

TAX PAYERS WARNED BY CITY TREASURER

Residents of this city who have not paid their 1923 personal or poll taxes are warned today by City Treasurer Fred Bourke that September 10 is their last day of grace. On that day a list will be compiled of persons whose personal or poll taxes are unpaid and this list will be given to constables to collect according to the manner provided by law.
No estimate of the amount owed by delinquent tax payers could be given by the treasurer this morning, but he said there were a great many who had failed to pay their taxes, which were due last October.

REP. CORBETT OBJECTS TO DELAY IN WORK ON COURT HOUSE

Inquires if County Commissioners in Their Desire to Save in the Cost of "Building Materials" Have Entirely Forgotten "Human Material"

Rep. Thomas J. Corbett, author of the original bill for the erection of a new district court building in Lowell, in a letter to the county commissioners today, intimated vigorous objections to their decision, announced yesterday, that the contract for the erection of the new building in Hurd street will not be awarded until the spring.
He expresses amazement in view of the facts in the case, first, Lowell is and has been for years in dire need of adequate facilities for the transaction of district court business; second:
Right in Hurd street where the site for the new court building is located, and in nearby streets, extensive building operations are in progress, under the direction of men of keen judgment and business acumen and finally with the great number of men out of work, the representative inquires the reason

PEACE OF WORLD'S PEOPLES DEPENDS ON ARBITRATION, SAYS HERRIOT

French Premier Accorded Great Ovation Before Assembly of League of Nations—Hopes U. S. Will Not Refuse to Continue Useful Collaboration

GENEVA, Sept. 5. (By the Associated Press.)—Premier Herriot of France, addressing the fifth assembly of the League of Nations today, began by saying that he brought the word of France to the assembly, and that word was peace.
He hoped that the United States would not refuse to continue its useful collaboration in disarmament, especially now that arbitration had come in as a feature.

George B. Brown, Seller of Luscious Green Corn, in Peck of Trouble

His Wagon Side-Swiped Car in Prescott Street—Then the Trouble Started

After singing three stanzas and the chorus of "When the Corn is in the Tassel, Annie Darling," Traffic Officer Harry Maroney mounted the driver's seat this forenoon and navigated a horse-drawn load of green corn from Bridges street to police headquarters in Market street.

Shortly before the officer shook out the reins over the sagging back of "Dynamite," his original driver, one George B. Brown of 62 Middlesex street, had side-swiped a touring car in Prescott street owned by John G.

THE CAST'S A MEAN LINE

Fred C. Berger, of the Long Island Casting Club, is the new world's champion surf caster. He won the title by making a cast of 421 feet 2 inches at the annual casting meet held at Margate City, N. J. Among those he defeated was a man who once out-cast Babe Ruth's longest home run.

IN NEW YORK

By Stephen Hannagan

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Persons of all ages, walks of life and sections of the country write stage plays, but few of them are ever produced.

Each day the office of a prominent producer is swamped with manuscripts. Miss Oello Houston, a talented play writer, relates that few manuscripts submitted do not have some point of unusual interest and originality, but that few of them maintain a sustained interest throughout.

Even those penned by successful playwrights frequently have to be rewritten in many spots.

Six plays, the leading incidents undoubtedly taken from the lives of the writers, predominate.

Although many excellent ideas are suggested by unknowns they fall short of production in that they have no definite plot and are not practical because the author knows too little of the intimate workings of the theatre—the mechanics of the stage.

Miss Houston reads between five and ten plays each day. Always she reads from the first word to the last, no matter how uninteresting the subject matter may be.

"I have been doing this for several years," she says, "and I am thoroughly convinced that writing a good and successful play is probably the most difficult thing in the world to accomplish."

She is one of the very few people connected with the New York stage who has not written, tried to write or at least planned to write a play.

ENDORSE CANDIDACY OF ALVAN T. FULLER

Lowell Automobile Merchants' association members have endorsed the candidacy of Ident. Gov. Alvan T. Fuller, for the republican nomination for governor of Massachusetts, against State Treasurer James Jackson, who also seeks the nomination at the primaries to be held next Tuesday. President George H. Dana presided at the automobile merchants' meeting, which was held in Morie's restaurant.

The time required for sound to pass to the ocean bottom and back can be measured by a newly invented device.

Rupture Expert Here

New Invention of Great Merit Gives Comfort and Relief to Thousands Suffering From Rupture

THE COLLINGS RUPTURE EXPERT, H. E. Carl, will be at the New American Hotel, Lowell, Mass., Monday, September 8, and at the Manchester House, Manchester, N. H., from Tuesday noon, Sept. 9, till Wednesday evening, Sept. 10. Every ruptured person, whether man, woman, or child, should arrange to call on one of the above mentioned dates and get a free demonstration of a new invention for difficult or aggravated cases of rupture no matter where located.

Thousands of persons who formerly suffered the tortures of old-fashioned steel and spring trusses are now rejoicing in their freedom from the danger and discomfort of rupture. If you who read this notice are interested in curing yourself completely, then don't fail to visit the Collings Expert for an absolutely free demonstration and trial of the most remarkable System for rupture that has ever been invented. There is nothing like it anywhere, and hosts of men and women are amazed at the ease with which their ruptures are controlled.

Why wear trusses the rest of your life? What you want is to be cured of your rupture so you can then enjoy life away. You are given an opportunity to find out how you can do this by accepting our free trial plan, absolutely without a penny in advance. We want a chance to prove to you that the Collings System for rupture is a real, genuine means of relief, from coughing, cutting, clothing, spring trusses. We want you to try this treatment at our expense and send our representative to personally apply it to your rupture. Remember it costs you no money to give this System a trial, and you should be anxious to know if it holds out greater possibilities of a cure than what you are now using.

The expert who is coming to your city is thoroughly experienced in the Collings System and he will be glad to give you the benefit of his experience in the treatment of rupture, without any charge whatever. No matter what you have tried or how many times you have failed, you can't afford to miss this opportunity. Mr. Carl will explain about the famous Collings System of treating rupture—the System that thousands report has healed them in their own homes. He will show you plainly why this method of treating rupture has been so remarkably successful.

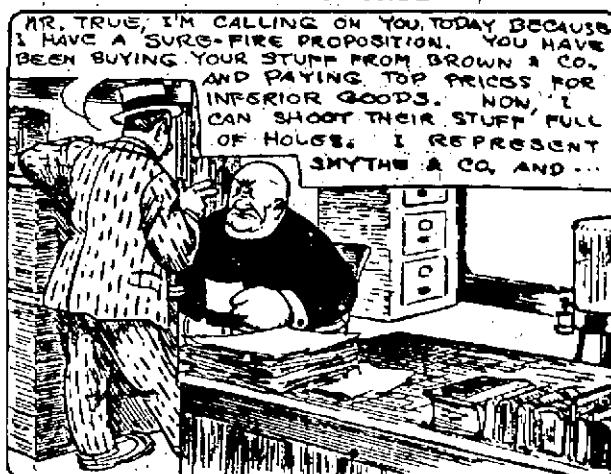

No ruptured person can afford to suffer the danger and inconvenience of rupture when a means of relief is brought to your very door. Don't let the little ones grow up handicapped with rupture. Find out the Collings System of recovery without operation. It will be well worth any ruptured person's time to see this expert. It is not often that such an opportunity comes and when it does, it is foolish to neglect it. Call at the New American Hotel Monday, Sept. 8, or at the Manchester House, Manchester, N. H., Tuesday or Wednesday, Sept. 9 and 10, 9 a. m. to 12 m., 2 to 5 p. m., 7 to 9 evenings, and bring this notice with you.

TRAIN-WRECKER

Nine-year-old Ralph Roberts of Toledo, O., went down to Millfield, O., to visit his grandparents. But life in the little Backing Valley town grew too tame for him. He wanted excitement. So he rolled a big block of wood out onto the New York Central's tracks, then wired it down. Just to see what would happen. A passenger train came along and smashed into the obstruction. The engineer and fireman were killed and several passengers were injured.

MOM'N POP

AT THE RIALTO

What is a white sin? Is it a sin committed with the full knowledge of the person committing it, or is it a sin committed unknowingly? Is it a deliberate sin against society or is it just something innocently done? Most of us forgive ourselves for committing what we believe to be white sins. Do others forgive us as we forgive ourselves? Did Hattie Lou Harkness commit a sin or was she simply against? Did handsome Spencer Van Gore sin when he married Hattie Lou? Did Grace Van Gore commit a sin when she took Hattie Lou with her?

See the beautiful, canno-like star, Madge Bellamy, in "The White Sin," which will be seen at the Rialto all week starting next Monday. Understand the position she was placed in and then judge for yourself what you would have done under similar circumstances.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

R. F. KEITH'S THEATRE
The appearances here of the Melodramatic New England's premier male singing organization, have created much interest among all those who love good singing. The training of these men has been under the very best of teachers and their singing has reached a plane where it is doubtful if better work is to be found off the operatic stage. Twice daily the Melodramatic appear. Sully and Thomas, in their sketchy little comedy, cause much laughter. Sully is a lightome comedian, who never misses a chance to make a joke. Thomas is a lightome comedian, who never misses a chance to make a joke.

DISCUSS DRACUT SCHOOL PROBLEMS

Dracut school committee held its regular meeting last evening with numerous citizens on hand to discuss many important problems covering school affairs, transportation of school pupils and public health. It was a lively session from start to finish. Six citizens of the Mammoth road section of Dracut appeared to protest relative to the transportation of school children in that district. George Willett was spokesman and stated that the complaints came mostly from the Lodge Hill district. Children have to walk too far to go to school, he said, and it is a dangerous thoroughfare in the bargain. Others speakers included Mrs. Walter Andrews, Mrs. Norberg, Supt. Charles L. Randall and Mrs. A. D. Best. The matter has been taken under advisement by the school committee. Miss Edna Cutter was appointed to a berth on the health committee to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Harvey Somers.

OH GIRLS! ISN'T HE CUTE?

Here's the Prince of Wales caught "showing off" before an admiring group. It's hard saying whether it was his perfect 36 that His Nibs was discussing, or just his general get-up. At any rate, he seemed pleased with it all.

THE DAWES BROTHERS' REUNION

It was quite a reunion the Dawes brothers had the other day. Three of them came to call on the most famous member of the family, Brig. Gen. Charles G. Dawes, republican vice presidential nominee. And here we see them all. From left to right are Henry M. Dawes, comptroller of currency. Benam G. Dawes, Rufus C. Dawes, and the general.

WILL OPEN GASOLINE FILLING STATION

On Saturday, Sept. 6th, the Atlantic Refining company will open a gasoline filling station at Merrimack and Tremont streets. This station will be operated by the company and will further extend their distribution of gasoline and motor oils in New England.

In addition to marketing, the Atlantic Refining Co. is also producers and refiners of petroleum, operating four refineries, three in Pennsylvania located in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Franklin and one in Brunswick, Ga. This company also does an export business with Europe and South America. These large refineries enable them to market gasoline and motor oils of uniform quality.

The Atlantic Refining company is a pioneer in the development of the drive-in filling station, being one of the first oil companies to see its advantage to the motorist inasmuch as this type of station offers a high standard of service with a maximum of safety and convenience.

TELLS DYSPEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour, Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things. Either they can go on a diet of bland, easily digestible food, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or fermentation by the use of a little Bisulphated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bisulphated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a laxative. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of peppin pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bisulphated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the bisulphated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."—Adv.

SEN. WHEELER RENEWS ATTACK ON KLAN

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 5.—Connecticut supporters of the La Follette ticket throw the New England stumping tour of Senator Wheeler, their vice-presidential candidate, into high gear today and started him away from Providence just after daylight, scheduled to make five speeches before sleeping again. The itinerary began at Williamantic, 10.30 a. m., and continued through Hartford, noon; Waterbury, 2 p. m.; Bridgeport, 6 p. m.; concluding with New Haven at 8.30 p. m. Samuel Tator, Connecticut state chairman for the La Follette forces, completed the planning overnight, and the automobile party moved out preceded by advance speakers to hold the crowds.

Concluding his stay in Rhode Island, Senator Wheeler last night notified an audience at Providence that the La Follette forces would refrain from endorsing or otherwise interfering in the campaigns of candidates for state offices. He touched up local politics on another point, and branched into a renewal of criticism of the Ku Klux Klan.

"General Dawes, republican vice-presidential candidate, says there is some justification for the Ku Klux Klan, in places where law isn't being enforced," Senator Wheeler declared. "He mentions Meritt, Ill., and Oklahoma. I'll admit that law isn't enforced everywhere. One reason is because the Coolidge administration doesn't do its part towards enforcement. But there isn't, anywhere in the United States, justification in conditions for the existence of the Ku Klux Klan."

TO FIGHT SOCIALISM AND COMMUNISM

BERNE, Switzerland, Sept. 5.—To fight all forms of socialism, communism, state ownership and similar movements is the object of the international middle class congress which has just closed its sessions here. The speakers all maintained that private ownership and management constituted the only sound basis for an economic system. All the European countries were represented in the congress, notably Germany, France, England and Austria.

GRETNA GREEN TO BECOME AIR CENTER

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Gretna Green, long famous for romantic runaway marriages, is preparing to become an important air centre as a base for travel to Ireland. Travelers will cross to Belfast in an hour and a quarter, and business men of northern Ireland believe the new service will be much to bring Ulster into closer relationship with England and Scotland.

State Primary Elections*Studded With Contests

Youngman and James W. Bean of Cambridge. Commissioners in Middlesex county invariably are republican and they usually have clear and unopposed sailing, but this year, Commissioners Alfred L. Cutting and Walter C. Wardwell are opposed by William G. Andrews of Cambridge and Andrew L. Wardwell of Somerville. The two names of Wardwell may cause some confusion, but the present incumbent, "Walter," has secured much propaganda to fix his identity in the minds of the voters of the county and feels confident of re-election.

Parce seek to Oppose Walsh

For United States senator, the present junior senator from the state, David I. Walsh, democrat, and extremely popular with his party, is unopposed for the nomination. On the republican side of the fence is a battle-royal, however, with Frederick H. Gillett, speaker of the national house of representatives; Frederick W. Dallinger, congressman, and Louis A. Coolidge, well known business man and president of the United Shoe Machinery Co. All three men have brought their fights into Lowell, speaking themselves as well as through representatives.

Another Lowell man, Abel R. Campbell, widely known real estate man and developer, seeks state office this year, being a candidate for the republican nomination for member of the governor's council from the sixth district of which Lowell is a part. He is opposed by Charles Sumner Smith of Lincoln, who seeks re-election after four years of service, and Frank R. Bailey of Lowell. Mr. Campbell sought to have Mr. Bailey's name taken off the primary ballot on the grounds that he had mis-stated his place of residence, but after a hearing before the ballot law commission the petition was denied. That Mr. Campbell will receive a large vote in the northern end of the district is unquestioned.

For representative in congress from the fifth district, Hon. John Jacob Rogers is unopposed for the republican nomination and Humphrey O'Sullivan is the only candidate of the democrats. They will oppose each other on election day.

Eight in 14th District Fight

The 14th state representative district, comprising wards 1, 2 and 3 of Lowell will be the scene of a seven-cornered contest next Tuesday, with two men to be nominated and a third, Mr. Rountree, to be added on election day. The present representatives from this district, Owen E. Brennan and Charles H. Slowe seek re-election. They are opposed by Rickard J. Donohoe, a candidate two years ago and employed locally as a printer; Eugene A. Fitzgerald representative in the city council from ward 2, and Patrick F. Nease, all democrats. The republicans also have two candidates in this district, Harry W. Leavitt, a resident of the South Lowell district, and John P. McCarthy.

The 15th representative district, where Representatives Victor F. Jewett and Henry Achin, Jr., long have flourished, has seven candidates, all republicans. Along with Messrs Jewett and Achin, Fred O. Lewis seeks re-election. Adaird Berard, a former representative, would again return to Beacon hill and the three other aspirants are Louis W. Richard, a candidate for the city council from ward 2 last year; Napoleon J. Vigeant and William D. Blanchard. With no democrats in the field, nomination is the same as election for three men.

In the 16th district, City Councillor Frederick A. Sadlier and Charles F. Donahue, both of ward 4, will be primary opponents and the one nominated will have Councillor Daniel F. Moriarty and Paul J. Angelo, both of ward 5, to cope with on election day, as both will appear on the ballot as independent candidates.

No contests appear in the Eighth senatorial district, Senator Frank H. Putnam, republican, is unopposed and William E. Martin of Draught was the only democrat to take out papers. This district takes in all local wards except ward 9.

In the Seventh senatorial district, which embraces ward 9, Senator Charles P. Howard of Reading, has no opposition. The hours for voting on primary day will be from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. and the election commission has all arrangements in hand to care for the vote. The specimen ballots are expected to reach the city tomorrow forenoon. They are being printed this year in Charlestown state prison and have been somewhat delayed in delivery.

Home Again

HAL COCHRAN'S
DAILY

Dragged and weary and sore at the feet, you're back from vacation again. You're nearing your home; it's a block down the street. You hustle to get there, and then—

Why, surely, this isn't the place where you live. The scenery is not quite the same. And then, when another once-over you give, you find what is really to blame.

The grass has grown long and the yard is unkempt; it's littered with papers and such. While you were away tender care has just slept; there's an absence of tidiness touch.

The porch is just covered with old tawdry wares and the mail box is filled to the top. There's milk stacked galore on the old back porch stairs. The milkman was not told to stop.

Thus vacation's over and you have returned. What greeting! Alas and alack. And yet all this clutter is readily spurned for despite it, you're glad to get back.

W. L. HARDING HITS SCOUTS PLAN RECEPTION
SEN. LA FOLLETTE TO COMRADE

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 5.—The issue in Minnesota is "whether you are going to have socialism," declared W. L. Harding, former governor of Iowa, in an address here last night, to leading Republicans of Minnesota.

Mr. Harding criticized the presidential candidacy of Senator La Follette.

"The issues in this campaign are not new," said Mr. Harding. "The struggle for liberty has gone on for years. Yet in this hour we have a man who has nominated himself, who has written his own platform, and who has notified himself of his own nomination."

"Job La Follette is the candidate of the socialist party. The issue in Minnesota is whether you are going to have socialism."

"When the decline begins we'll go down rapidly. You've got to buckle on your armor and get out and fight. Not with swords, but with your interest in a sound, ideal government."

"The main thing for the Republicans of Minnesota to do is to get behind their whole party ticket," he said.

They cut grasshoppers in South America, and it might be a good idea for our auto-dodging politicians to try this diet.

The Boy Scouts of Lowell are planning an enthusiastic reception to Scout Warren Vander Burg, the local council's representative to the International Jamboree, held in Copenhagen, Denmark. Scout Vander Burg will be met at the Middlesex street railroad station by all the Lowell troops who will march through the city to the rooms of the Lowell council, in Kearney square. The detailed program will be announced later.

BERRY TO DRIVE
GEERS' HORSES

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 5.—The reins that Edward F. ("Pop") Geers held to victory in many a battle on the American turf and only dropped when he met death Wednesday in a race at the West Virginia state fair, today were taken up by Thomas Berry of Farmington, N. J., an experienced horseman.

NATIONAL DEFENSE DAY

General Committee on Local Observance Will Meet This Evening

Large Attendance Anticipated—Many Important Matters to Be Discussed.

Lowell citizens' committee for the local observance of "National Defense Day" will hold its important business meeting this evening, in the temporary headquarters now open day and night in the old Courier-Citizen building. Many important matters are coming up for discussion and disposal. Chairman Maj. Dana Palmer, anticipates a large attendance from every organization in the city invited to cooperate in Lowell's patriotic demonstration.

In the event of a major emergency requiring the drafting of a citizen army, Lowell will be called upon to furnish nearly 3600 men, according to Commander Collin C. MacDonell of Lowell post 57, American Legion, who is chairman of the local "National Defense day" publicity and press committee.

In 1917 and 1918, when Lowell furnished its quota for the draft, the men were usually sent to some large camp, at which place they were assigned to some unit with which they received their training. Under the new plan, men will be sent directly to some unit, which in all probability will be organized in Lowell, and the early training will be given here.

The units which Lowell will furnish include many branches of the army. The war department, through the corps area representative, has given out the names of the units to be supplied from Lowell. In most cases the officers are all assigned and are receiving some training in their respective duties. Following are the units:

How quickly that rash disappeared!

THOUSANDS of users have wondered at the quickness of the action of Resinol Ointment and Soap. The answer is that it is not a surface treatment, but one that reaches the depths of the pores and attacks the source of the disorder, starting the healing right.

The first touch relieves the itching, burning and soreness and a few days persistent use rarely fails to clear away the trouble.

When the skin is once restored to its normal condition, the daily use of Resinol Soap is generally sufficient to keep it healthy. Ideal for the complexion—unsurpassed for the bath and shampoo. Ask your druggist what he knows about the Resinol products.

Middlesex North Pomona Grange Holds Meeting

platform with a huge dark plush curtain as a background.

One of the first to appear with genuine country products, fresh-picked and all-qualities, was Mr. George W. Trull of North Tewksbury. Past Master Norman L. Peasey was also an early comer, bringing the usual quality exhibits from the Peasey farm in Dracut. Before 10:30 the hall parking place for the boxes, dishes and cloths where the home garden products from far corners of Middlesex county were displayed, the first "county fair" to be held in this vicinity this year, was on full swing.

This afternoon there was a special display of home-canned fruits and vegetables, direct from the headquarters of the Tewksbury Canning club. It was wonderfully good and showed remarkable cleverness in the "putting up" process on the part of Tewksbury farm-bred women and girls. An auction of many of the food products was scheduled after the exhibition.

Today's first meeting of the Middlesex Pomona, brought together nearly 200 members. There were impromptu reunions before the business meeting was called to order. Mrs. Sarah K. Moore, the popular member, being especially greeted by every one present at a mark of appreciation for excellent services rendered in her important office role. Mrs. Grace W. Dawson of West Chelmsford, lecturer, also received a warm greeting upon her arrival to handle the reins of the day's meetings.

The morning session was devoted principally to members relating stories about vacation happenings. Travel talks of an informal nature brought out much interesting material for discussion. The members took pleasure in describing the different places visited during the summer months when taking auto jaunts to far places.

Just before the dinner, Mrs. Duwack, lecturer, presented a report covering the annual summer meeting of the Massachusetts State Grange Lecturers' association, which was held in Durham, N. H. It was a very successful affair, and Middlesex Pomona's report of work performed by Lecturer Mrs. Dawson was highly endorsed. The association may meet in Lowell next season.

Regret was expressed by the grangers, when it was announced that a beloved and staunch supporter of all grange activities, Mr. Samuel Taylor of Westford, could not attend today's opening rally. Mr. Taylor was listed six months ago to read a surprise feature paper today, the topic of the Taylor article being "First Aid to Farm Animals." The paper may be read at a meeting to be held at 7:30 p. m.

Typical Grange Dinner

Dinner at 12:20 p. m. was typical of grange dinners of yore. Today's was a bountiful one, for the fall harvesting season brings to the Pomona members' tables many vegetables and fruits that are ripened and in prime condition for a farmers' feast of the kind the Pomona members always partake.

Today's old-fashioned banquet included baked beans, fish balls, potato salad, tomatoes, corn, cucumbers and fresh apple pies. The repast was provided and served by the following members of Dunstable grange:

Mrs. Herbert Swallow, chairman; Miss Mary Darling, Mrs. Mary Keene. This afternoon, Pomona entertained many Lowell visitors, the meeting being open to the public. The principal speaker was Walter Ernest E. Clibber, worthy master of the Massachusetts state grange. He gave the members a very encouraging talk, reviewed some grange history, told of the increasing membership and what it meant, and declared that Middlesex Pomona's position today in state grange circles was high in the esteem of all affiliated granges as well as state and national officials.

An extra feature of this afternoon's entertainment, was the appearance of the Cummings Musical trio of Woburn. They were children from the Hanson school, and showed good training, especially in the playing of the piano. Miss Arline Cummings gave enjoyable readings, and is a dancer of charm. Joseph Cummings played several cornet solos, Harold Silva acting as piano accompanist.

Will Exhibit Apples

The next meeting of the Pomona will be held in Odd Fellows hall, Oct. 5; an "Apple program" is scheduled. There will be a special exhibit of apples, with Mr. Edward F. Dickinson in charge. Miss Eunice Austin will offer an exhibit of cooked apples and apple products. In the afternoon session, there will be a discussion of the question: "Should we plant more orchards?" Miss Philista Flint will read a paper on "How to Cook and Serve Apples," and Miss Francena L. Sherburne will discuss the food values of different kinds of farm fruit. Dr. Frank J. Smith, expected to read a paper, and it is expected that Dr. Leslie H. Smith, deputy commissioner of the Massachusetts department of agriculture, will be the chief afternoon speaker.

TRUCK DAMAGED BY FIRE

A truck owned by the Outfit Fruit company was slightly damaged by fire early this afternoon while parked in Market street. A telephone alarm was sounded at the Central fire station, and the company responding quickly extinguished the blaze, which was confined to the cab.

NEW ENGLAND WEEK

New England week is now less than three weeks away and while various other matters, political and otherwise, engage the attention of the public, yet it is of the greatest importance that this community in common with other municipalities of New England does its full share in making the coming drive a great success.

What is necessary for this purpose? Simply an organized effort to make New England products known to the rest of the world; to purchase such products and thus assist in the resumption of industrial activity throughout the New England states. It has been proposed to have an exhibit of the products of our mills; but if these are not shown in any public hall, they will be found on the counters of our big stores.

The chamber of commerce a couple of years ago got up a very attractive exhibit of the products of our textile industries and the nearest approach to any exhibit of New England products since held in this city, was seen at the Home Beautiful exhibition conducted by the Master Builders, but that was not confined exclusively to New England products.

We want to send the products of our factories to every part of this country and overseas and to this end the drive of New England week is but the initial step. The textile industry has not had fair treatment from the government and to overcome such discrimination should be part of the program for the advancement of New England industries.

It is expected, therefore, that every New Englander interested in the prosperity of our industries will boom New England products not only during the coming week but continually and give a practical demonstration of regard for home industries by showing a preference for their products. This, of course, will be impractical unless these products are offered for sale in our stores with proper labels to distinguish them from products made perhaps in England, Germany or Japan.

SEN. WHEELER'S SPEECH

Senator Wheeler in his speech at city hall the other evening entered into an arraignment of the republican party on the evidence of corruption brought out in the investigation at Washington. What he said in this regard, we presume, was very largely true and what he said in reference to the dilatory course of President Coolidge in dealing with the corruptionists was also true; but when he intimated that these things militated equally against the democratic party he was wrong and he knew he was stating an untruth. He said both parties are ruled by Wall street, that the men from Wall street dictate the nominations in the republican convention, then enter the democratic convention and do the same. That too, is a falsehood. In reference to the nominations of the democratic convention there never was any more free from outside influence. The predatory interests, as the senator termed the so-called enemies of the people, had nothing to do with the nomination of John W. Davis. But Senator Wheeler must make some excuse for his recantation to the party that honored him in the past by electing him to high office.

He said the corrupt influences of the Harding administration could be traced from the Chicago convention of 1920 to the little green house on K street, Washington, which he held was made the headquarters for the high-class bootlegging business in connection with the department of justice. Yes, the trail of the corrupt politician was apparent; but the Wall street bugaboo did not fit here and Senator Wheeler knows very well that Wall street lost its power of domination when the federal reserve act, the work of a democratic administration, became operative. The monster was slain by a democratic president and a democratic congress; and Senator Wheeler insults the intelligence of his audience when he asserts that Wall street is still controlling the conventions and policies of the country.

We are rather sorry that Senator Wheeler lost his head to such an extent as to desert the democratic party; but he is evidently of radical tendencies and when he tries to excuse his radicalism by comparing his course to that of Sam Adams, Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson, he simply makes himself ridiculous in the eyes of the people. Senators Shipstead, Brookhart, Magnus Johnson and La Follette are his ideals. He says they were elected by a combination of the farmer-labor vote; and if the farmers and organized labor have to depend upon such men for reform and relief from adverse conditions, they will wait in vain for redress.

The democratic party headed by John W. Davis and that party alone offers all the people relief from the mismanagement and corruption of the republican regime. It is the party of the people, and the third party made up of an aggregation of radicals, headed by La Follette and Wheeler merely raises a political will of the wisp to lead the unwary into the slough of despond.

TOURIST TRAFFIC

Alvan Macaulay, president of the Packard Motor company, has an article in the September issue of the American Motorist in favor of routing tourist traffic past the congested points in cities, rather than through these points. He holds that the average tourist is not a potential customer in the communities he traverses and that heavy through traffic has not proved to be an asset to the merchants and business interests that have insisted on leading it past their doors. There is here a suggestion that will probably be adopted by many cities as a means of solving at least in some degree the very perplexing traffic problems that are now under consideration.

The through traffic has no desire to become entangled in city congestion and the cities in their effort to reduce such congestion may find it to their advantage to direct this kind of traffic along suburban routes, connecting with main highways and thus avoid adding to the congestion which is now so very annoying in practically every large city of the country. Tourist traffic is rapidly growing in volume from year to year so that the adoption of Macaulay's plan of diverting it from the busy centers may soon become imperative.

It is reported that diamonds have been found in glacial drifts in our country. One weighing seventeen karats was recently discovered in gravel during the sluicing of a well in Wisconsin. Possibly La Follette and his party may discover a diamond mine out in that state. Geologists, however, state that these diamonds were carried along from somewhere in Canada and they expect that eventually the mother diamond mine may be discovered up north. Geologists are our best authorities on such matters.

What a beautiful and blissful country this would be if nobody under eighteen years of age were allowed to do any work. The widowed mother would have to support herself and her family in idleness until her children all reached the age of eighteen before she could legally ask any of them to do a single hour of work. Would not such a provision of law furnish an excellent training for a life of idleness?

Dancing teachers have put the ban on dancing and waltzing dancing which they introduced a few years ago. They are now wisely getting back to the old-fashioned waltz and dances of similar movement and decorum.

There is a growing feeling that tinkering the constitution of the United States is dangerous business for the reason that a great many people are liable to vote away their liberties for some amendment that bears the label of moral reform.

It is to be hoped that some of the warlords of China will attain sufficient power to rule the empire in a civilized way. Usually after these outbreaks of internecine strife in China, the other nations have to go in and save millions from starvation.

Suddenly all the patriotism and political virtue in the land is said to have settled in Wisconsin and a few other states in that region. 'Twas not thus in war days.

Pre-Johnson Chatter

"What is the date of those chairs?" inquired the visitor from New York at the Cheshire Cheese. "Sixteen seven-five, sir," replied the waiter. "Here!" protested the disbelieving American, "that was before old Dr. Johnson was born. You surely don't think we got new furniture for him?" asked the waiter, pityingly.

September

Sweet is the voice that calls from babbling waterfalls
In meadows where the daisy seeds are flying;
And the soft breezes blow
And eddies come and go
In faded gardens where the rose is dying.

Among the stubbled corn
The blithe quail pipes at morn
The merry partridge drum in hidden places
And glittering insects gleam
Where busy spiders spin their filmy lace.

At eve, cool shadows fall
Across the garden wall,
And on the clustered grapes to purple turning;
And pearly vapors lie
Along the eastern sky
Where the broad harvest-moon is redly burning.

Ah, soon on field and hill
The wind shall whistle chill,
And patriarch swallows call their rocks together,
To fly from frost and snow,
And seek for lands where blow
The fairer blossoms of a balmy weather.

The cricket chirps all day,
"O fairest summer, stay!"
The squirrel eyes askance the chestnuts browning;
The wild fowl fly afar
And hasten southward ere the skies are frowning.

Now comes a fragrant breeze
Through the dark cedar trees,
And round about my temples fondly lingers,
In gentle playfulness,
Like to the soft caress
Bestowed in happier days by living fingers.

Yet though a sense of grief
Comes with the falling leaf
And memory makes the summer doubly pleasant,
In all my autumn dreams
A future summer gleams
Passing the fairest glories of the present!

—By GEORGE ARNOLD.

He Was Too Late

A provincial clergyman was in the habit of paying frequent visits to London, and applied to membership of a club, in due course he was put up for, and elected to, a club which was noted for its late hours and the general air of jollity of its members. The new member, blissfully unaware of its reputation, paid a visit to London and stayed at the club. After his long journey from the north, he retired to bed very early and awoke equally early. He dressed and went downstairs to look for breakfast before eight o'clock, and in the dining-room was surprised to discover that his only occupant was one weary waiter. As the clergyman was about to sit down at one of the tables, the waiter approached him and said, apologetically: "I'm sorry, sir, but we are not allowed to serve supper after eleven a. m."—London Answers.

Cactus and Cuckoo

Luther Burbank, the plant wizard, is now growing a thornless edible cactus in the Arizona desert, and a reporter asked him recently if it was true that the government proposed to put up his work, which is being conducted on government lands. "The government won't interfere with me," Mr. Burbank said, "unless its legs about my edible cactus are as mistaken as the senator's ideas about the cuckoo. A senator, you know, said in a speech the other day: "The other side, gentlemen, is taking credit for things it has not done. It is like the cuckoo, which, as you are aware, gentlemen, is the only bird that does not lay its own eggs."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

French Pawnbroker, "Aunt"

In Paris and other big French cities the pawnbroker is called "My Aunt." In France one needn't blush in doing business with the pawnbroker, for he is the state; that is, the government conducts the pawnbroking business. It does it very well, too, if I am to believe the testimony of some Americans who have "traded" with "My Aunt" while awaiting delayed remittances from home. "My Aunt" has had a good year's business. She does little business nowadays with the workmen, for he is always in work. The center of poverty has moved. It is the white-collar brigade which is unable to make both ends meet, resorts to "My Aunt." Oddly enough, "My Aunt's" shop in Paris is on "The Hill of Pity." Not a misprint for pity.—World Traveler Magazine.

Remembered Kisser

In Tasmania an old man was sitting in front of his cabin, over the door of which was painted, "let on parle francais." A tattered, dejected-looking Frenchman, who happened to be passing up the road, noticed the inscription. And, rushing up to the colonial, he kissed him on both cheeks. "Ere, what's your game?" demanded the sundowner gruffly. "Don't do that again." "But you was a counterman of mine," exclaimed the Frenchman. "Certainly not!" retorted the colonial. "But you put 'let on parle francais' over se door," said the Frenchman, pointing to the inscription. "Well, what of it?" asked the sundowner in mild surprise. "Why, it means 'French is spoken here.' 'Well, then, my friend,' exclaimed the Tasmanian in deep disgust. 'A painter chap came along here the other day and put that up for me. He said it was Latin for 'Bless my happy home.'"

LAWN PARTY OPENS

Large Crowd Enjoys Splendid Program on St. Anthony's Parish Grounds

The twinkling of a myriad of gay, beautifully colored lanterns, the strains of sweet sounding musical instruments, the happy and contented faces of both children and adults, all lend to the grounds of St. Anthony's church the appearance of a celestial garden or a fanciful Utopia. The church lawn party is well under way. The proceeds of the affair will go to swelling the parish building fund. The party opened last evening and will close tomorrow.

Beneath the exotic, shimmering but subdued flare of hundreds of gaily-colored Japanese lanterns the extensive lawns adjoining the rectory became, as it were, a part of another world. The joyous shouts of happy children pierced the night air as the peals of silver chimes. Every booth and table erected about the mid-way was tastefully and prettily decorated. An excellent dance floor built on the sward furnished an opportunity that young people were not slow to grasp. A special program had been prepared which included musical galloping by the O'Reilly troupe, well known Lowell entertainers; vocal selections by James Delgan and Martin H. Magure; and dancing by Alice Sousa, Georgia Mello and Manuel Dias. Tomorrow afternoon a series of special features will be held by and for the children of the parish. Rev. Joseph Grillo, acting pastor of the parish, is in general charge of the lawn party. He is most ably assisted by an advisory committee composed of Annibal L. Sousa, chairman; Anthony L. Sousa, secretary; Mrs. Rose T. Solome, Mrs. Mary Vise, Miss Bernardette M. Bettencourt, John Bettencourt, Manuel Innocencio, John Rosa and Louis Peter.

The soliciting committee is composed of the following: Misses Elise Santos, Bernardette Bettencourt, Mary Mello, Gertrude Braga, Mary Lobas, Rosa Mello, Edith Picasso, Celeste Silva, Eugenia Bettencourt, Louise Picasso, Belia Solome, Beatrice Vise and Mary Cori. Quardros, Antonio Braga, Antonio Caldeira, Manuel Floris, Joseph B. Parry, Joseph J. Rigo, Annibal L. Sousa, Joseph Souza and John Bettencourt.

The following committee had charge of the miscellaneous table which was run by the Sunday school: Miss Bernardette Bettencourt, chairman; Misses Gladys Silva, Mary Mello, Mary Costa, Mary C. Rebello. On the fancy work table, conducted by the members of St. Anthony's society, were the following: Misses Eugenia Bettencourt, chairman; Mary C. Repozo and Mary V. de Bem.

POLICE GUARD LT. LOCATELLI

Rival Italian Factions Assembled to Greet Him in New York Threatened a Riot

Airman Rushed Away in Taxi—Plans For Big Reception Made Today

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—A welcome more in keeping with his historic attempt at achievement than was accorded Lieutenant Antonio Locatelli last night, when he was hurried through a side entrance of the Grand Central terminal into a waiting taxicab by the committee today.

Elaborate ceremonies for greeting the Italian airman, who was wrecked off Greenland in his attempted flight from Italy to New York, were to have been held in the station with the Italian consul-general and other dis-

stinctly in attendance. Public knowledge of the ceremonies attracted a crowd of his countrymen who swarmed about the gates, starting a demonstration which, by the time of his arrival, was expressed in the cries "Hurrah for Locatelli!" and "Diven with Locatelli and the Fascisti!"

Fifteen policemen saw it was impossible to combat the crowd of 5000 persons, so with the consent of the consul-general, Locatelli was surrounded by police and pushed into a taxicab. A banquet in his honor at the Ritz-Carlton was guarded by special police last night and an escort for him during his stay was arranged here.

The Bone and Sinew

The readers of THE SUN are the bone and sinew of Lowell. They are practically all Lowell people who have helped to make the city what it is.

They earn their living in Lowell; they spend their money in Lowell; they are the main support of the Lowell merchants.

SUN readers are not in the habit of running to Boston for their supplies. They trade at home.

They are the largest body of newspaper readers in the city, and few of them read any other paper because they don't need to.

There is only one way for the merchant to reach this large, thrifty, industrious and intelligent body of readers, and that is through the columns of THE SUN.

SEC. WILBUR TO VIEW TEAPOT DOME

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Sept. 5.—Secretary of the Navy, Curtis D. Wilbur, who arrived here yesterday from Seattle, on the flagship of the United States battle fleet, will make a survey of oil reserves in California and of the Teapot Dome oil reserve in Wyoming before he returns to the east, he said.

Fire in Bleachery

Shortly before 8 o'clock this morning an employee of the junk dealer was using a gasoline torch in melting a pipe when suddenly flames burst out on the floor and wall nearby. He ran to the wall of the building to secure water to extinguish the blaze, but when he returned the flames had spread over a large area of the building.

Other employees of the junk dealer working in the building, rushed to the Bleachery office for assistance and a passerby summoned an alarm from Box 18, Moore and Lenox streets, at 8 o'clock.

When the fire apparatus arrived, the entire interior was a roaring furnace and flames were bursting through the windows all along both sides of the building.

A number of hose lines were brought into action, some being connected to city hydrants and others to the Bleachery's high pressure fire supply system.

Gradually the flames were forced back from the windows and firemen carried hose lines into the interior, where they were able to direct them at places where the fire apparently had centered. The intense heat and thick smoke made their work exceptionally difficult.

Tons of water were poured into the flames before the fire was brought under control in the lower section of the building and then it was found that the timber work of the roof, under the slate shingles, had caught fire and was burning rapidly.

Officers of the Bleachery were at the scene of the fire but could give no estimate of the loss. The building, they said, was covered by insurance. As the building has not been used for some time, they said, the fire would not interfere in the slightest with the Bleachery's operations.

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

The following have filed marriage intentions at the office of the city clerk:

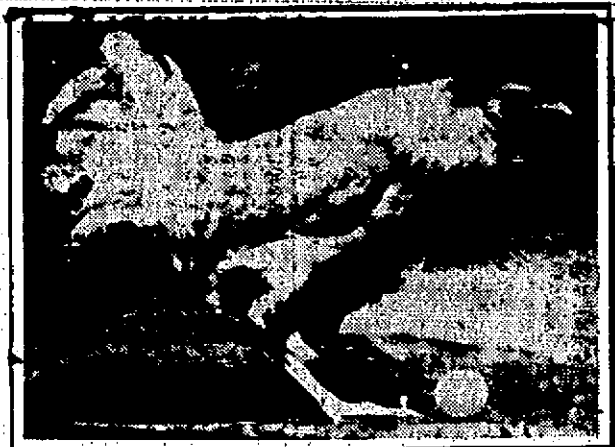

Gerald P. Hudson, Newton, druggist; Emilie E. MacKenzie, 22 Beatrice avenue, nurse.

Roland T. Phil, 28 Pawtucket, instructor Textile school; Louise F. Grover 111 Parkview avenue, at home.

Arthur Melcalf Morse, Jr., New London, Conn., manager; Katherine H. White, 52 Mansur street, at home.

SUSPENDED SENTENCE

Helen Kucarska, the girl who interfered with liquor squad officers during a raid in Front street last week, was arraigned in juvenile court this morning, and was given a suspended sentence to the women's reformatory at Shirley.

HAS SOMETHING TO CROW ABOUT

Meet the fowl hatched at Sewell, N. J., in 1922 that laid eggs during its pullet year, suddenly developed rooster characteristics, stopped laying, grew a comb, and then began laying eggs again. Rooster or hen? Science is trying to find out.

TWO GREEK SOLDIERS KILLED IN BULGARIA

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Sept. 5.—It is officially announced that two Greek soldiers have been killed in a conflict on Bulgarian territory south of Plovdiv. The announcement quotes a report from the commander of a Bulgarian post, who says he saw four Greek soldiers and one civilian, two kilometers from the Greek frontier, advancing toward a pasture in which cattle from the village of Manastir were grazing, with the intention of driving off the animals. When called upon to withdraw, he declares, the Greeks refused and the Bulgarians fired, killing two of them.

The bodies are being kept in Bulgarian territory and a commission has been appointed to investigate the incident.

The most common fault of beginners in tennis, golf and baseball is to allow their eyes to stray away from the ball.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Government business took up practically the entire attention of President Coolidge today, with the regular cabinet meeting in the morning and appointments with other officials on his engagement list.

Mr. Coolidge has been devoting considerable attention to his plan for investigating agriculture through a commission, and it has been indicated he would announce the personnel of the commission at an early date. He also has asked for additional data on the report of the tariff commission relative to the sugar duty, but a decision on this is not expected immediately.

The president will leave tomorrow morning by automobile for Baltimore where he will deliver an address at the unveiling of the Lafayette statue. He will return immediately after the exercises.

World Peace Depends

Upon Arbitration

bitration, upon the successful operation of which, he believed, the peace of the world's peoples depended.

"But arbitration must not be a trap for nations of good faith," he added. The premier pleaded for some system of protection for small countries, emphasizing that the great powers could always protect themselves. Referring to Germany, he said:

"We never desired the misery of the German people. France does not live on hate."

The applause was renewed when M. Herriot continued that Germany, if she desired admittance to the league, should have the same treatment as other nations seeking admission. France adhered to the league covenant, but wanted to make it a living covenant.

France Proposed Arbitration

Great cheers were given when M. Herriot declared that it was France herself who had proposed the arbitration feature of the London agreement for a reparations settlement. He hoped, he said, that one of the purposes of this fifth assembly would be the incorporation in its program for achievement of a provision that a future aggressor will be a country that refuses arbitration.

In his plea for some plan for protecting the smaller countries, M. Herriot, drawing his conclusions from the philosophy of Pascal, said justice and force must go hand in hand, but that neither should exist without the other. He declared France had no ill-will, that security could be had by means of force alone. He agreed with Prime Minister MacDonald that any hurried prepared disarmament conference would be doomed to failure, and he insisted that when one was held it should be entrusted to the League of Nations.

Arbitration, security and disarmament were the three pillars of peace, the French premier set forth.

"France," he concluded, "holds out a fraternal hand to all your countries. It will give her joy, even among the sadness of her own ruins, if she can help that divine flower peace to bud."

M. Herriot agreed with his British colleague that the statutes of the permanent court of international justice should be amended.

Italy Ready to Cooperate

In the discussion that followed Premier Herriot's address ex-Premier Salandra of Italy said his country was desirous of cooperating in every way in the work of peace. He approved of the principle of arbitration.

Finally he declared, favored the progressive reduction of armaments and desired to avoid the danger of the formation of rival groups. He expressed the opinion that it would be dangerous for a nation to renounce the force necessary for its own defense.

Lord Parmoor of England said on behalf of the British delegation he wanted to thank Premier Herriot for his address and the high-minded principles advocated. He hoped that concrete agreements would be reached before the adjournment of the assembly. He approved of M. Herriot's insistence upon the necessity of protecting small countries, but he declared equality of treatment would never be obtained if the effort to get it were based on the use of military forces.

LA FOLLETTE TO HOLD SERIES OF CONFERENCES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Senator La Follette, independent candidate for president, expects to hold a series of conferences here within a week with his campaign managers, including John M. Nelson, in charge of main headquarters in Chicago, and Gilbert E. Roe, eastern director with offices in New York city. No definite date, however, has been fixed for the meeting.

While Mr. Nelson and Mr. Roe are in Washington, it is probable that they will discuss campaign activities with members of the committee which is assisting them in the management of the campaign.

Particular attention will be paid during the discussions, it was said today at La Follette headquarters, to the finance problem.

NATIONAL DEFENSE DAY

Bishop Nilan of Hartford Urges Catholic People to Co-operate in Observance

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 5.—In a letter to be read in the Roman Catholic churches of the diocese on Sunday, Rt. Rev. John J. Nilan, bishop of Hartford, urges co-operation of the Catholic people of the state for the observance of National Defense Day, saying:

An attractive wedding bell. Congratulations were then bestowed on the lucky girl. After the opening and praying of the many gifts, refreshments were served and an entertaining program was carried out with solos sustained by Miss Rose McCarthy and Mrs. Richard Foley, accompanied by Miss Vina Garrity. Miss Alice Bird amused the audience by ditties and her "uke," while a very attractive feature, was a rose dance by dainty little Rita Handley. The affair soon broke up and the guests, some representing the Bon Marche Company and Chalfoux Company, retired to their respective homes after spending a delightful evening.

SOVIET RUSSIA TO PROTEST

Suspects Arrangement Arrived at Between Great Powers as Regards China

Believes Agreement Reached During Sec. Hughes' Stay in London

MOSCOW, Sept. 5. (By the Associated Press.)—Soviet Russia takes a serious view of China's affairs and is not going to remain indifferent, says M. Rothstein, member of the presiding committee of the foreign office and chief of the press department, in an official statement to the foreign correspondents.

"We have full ground to suspect that some arrangement was arrived at between the great powers as regards China during Secretary Hughes' stay in London," the statement asserts. "This action was contemplated long ago, but America hesitated to make up her mind until the Russo-Chinese agreement."

"We believe that the United States abandoned its policy of the open door and decided to divide zones of interest in China. It seems that England receives the south, France the province of Unnan and Japan, Manchuria."

The participation of Japan was not yet clear, said M. Rothstein, but certain actions of Manchuria indicated that Japan had been given permission to occupy it.

"Whatever scheme the powers have arrived at," he added, "Soviet Russia is going to raise protests, as, being a neighbor to China, it affects Russia closely and fills her with great anxiety."

M. Rothstein took the occasion to deny that the Russo-Chinese treaty contained any secret clauses.

Advertisers who use The Sun consistently get greater returns on the money invested than through any other Lowell newspaper. There's a reason. The Sun goes into more homes in Lowell and suburbs than any other Lowell paper and ninety per cent of Sun readers read no other Lowell newspaper. Furthermore, ninety five per cent of The Sun circulation is confined to the city of Lowell and immediate vicinity.

COTTAGE HOUSE BADLY DAMAGED BY FIRE

A cottage house at 380 Riverside street owned and occupied by Walter Duffreane and family suffered $2000 fire loss last night when the rear of the house and attic were swept by flames. A lighted match in the hands of a son, Alfred, while searching for a pair of shoes in a storeroom near the kitchen, was responsible for the fire. An alarm was sounded from Box 77, Riverside and New York streets, and firemen worked for more than half an hour before the fire was extinguished. Property damage will reach $1200 and personal property loss will place the total at $2000.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL AND VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

Lowell men and women in attendance at the annual conference of Normal and training school faculties at Bridgewater State Normal school, last night heard John M. Brewer of the graduate school of education of Harvard university give a most instructive and scholarly address upon "What the Normal School Should Do About Educational and Vocational Guidance."

Mr. Brewer spoke as follows: "The normal school should interest itself in the question of guidance because the test of education, as well as the test of life, is the result of education as shown in the behavior of the person educated. The duty of the teacher may fairly adequately be defined as helping children to organize,

MYSTERIES OF THE ANCIENTS

The Department of Agriculture of Egypt has seeds which were found in age-proof containers in the tomb of King Tutankhamen which they will endeavor to propagate at their Agricultural Research Laboratories. These seeds may represent herbs containing medicinal properties that this age and generation knows not of. It was the simple roots and herbs of the field that half a century ago produced Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a remedy that has never been equalled in overcoming ailments peculiar to women.—Adv.

extend and improve their individual and co-operative activities. "Thus the aim of education, as expressed in terms of guidance, presupposes the analysis of life into its several activities as for example, education, home membership, citizenship, recreation, care of person, religion, etc., as well as into the attitudes, among them the ethical, thoughtful, co-operative and cultural each of which must permeate all of the activities. Again, each of the activities and attitudes itself must be analyzed

if we are to know exactly what each problem is in terms of definite aims. "Under educational guidance, for example, it is safe to say that we have almost wholly neglected the difficult problems connected with school adjustment. 'How to Study' is as serious a problem as ever with students of all ages. Few children have an adequate idea of the scope of educational opportunity and even students entering Normal schools have very hazy ideas about the teaching profession and its various opportunities. Choice of studies, choice of courses, choice of vocational schools, adjustment of school to home life and other possible activities, and many other similar topics indicate the work ahead of us in educational guidance. "In vocational guidance we seem to have little realization of the spiritual and civic possibilities. Occupational life is inextricably co-operative, and no one except a parasite can achieve his highest success without being of real service to others. Occupational life is intimately bound up with civic life as shown by the fact that the republican, democratic and progressive party platforms give respectively 43, 55 and 62 per cent of their total space to the discussion of occupational problems. One important aim of the vocational guidance movement is to permeate public consciousness with occupational knowledge and wisdom, in order to aid everyone in the co-operative solution of these difficult problems. "The Normal school should interest teachers for their work and aids by means of a variety of extension courses in the after care of teachers. It must resume major responsibility for vocational guidance, and it must, under no circumstances, leave this work to those particular normal schools which specialize in industrial or manual training work.

"Normal school teachers should organize committees on each of the major objectives in education. These committees as well as the heads of departments should aid in the analysis of every subject of the curriculum, asking of that subject such questions as: Who uses this study in life? How is it used? What information is necessary? What skills are required? What technical knowledge is needed? What social understanding and wisdom must be developed? "Teachers must be prepared also for the effective supervision of student activities, for it is through student activities that political and civic life are understood."

LIGHTNING BOLT AND ITS ENERGY

Every time there is a severe thunder storm nature discharges more electricity in the form of lightning than the total amount that could be produced by the simultaneous use of every generator, battery and other electrical machine, that has existed since the dawn of electrical knowledge. In every single flash of lightning is concentrated many times more energy than could be produced at that instant by all the electrical generating plants in the world.

The present available electrical power in the world is 10,000,000 horsepower, while the energy released in 1,200,000 of a second by the average flash of lightning is 50,000,000 horsepower—more than three times as much as engineers say they could develop by harnessing every stream in the United States!

These amazing facts have been revealed by recent scientific study of lightning. Nature's greatest show of violence. Only 425 persons were killed by lightning in the United States in the last year for which statistics are available, as compared with 1,005,952 deaths from all other causes. These figures show that you are far more likely to die in a railroad wreck, to be killed by an automobile, to drown, or even to be murdered, than to die by lightning.

Science has determined that not more than one lightning flash in 100 is even potentially dangerous to man, for the reason that only one flash in 100 reaches the earth. The rest are spectacular flashes between clouds. Also, only a small percentage of the flashes that reach the earth are dangerous, for lightning, like all other forms of electricity, seeks the path of least resistance; and since the air is not a good conductor of electricity, lightning, when it can, leaves the air to travel to earth over some better conductor. Nowadays it is likely to find such a conductor in a lightning rod, the steel frame of a building, a metal ingot, or a grounded radio aerial. It is only when it finds a better conductor than air in a man, an animal, a tree, a frame building, or the wooden masts of a ship that lightning actually causes fire or loss of life.

Tall structures, such as the Eiffel tower in Paris and the Washington monument, have been struck by lightning many times without damage. Most skyscrapers, probably have been struck without the occupants being any the wiser, because the steel skeletons conveyed the electricity harmlessly and silently to the earth. You are practically safe from lightning if you are indoors during a thunder storm, and you are reasonably safe outdoors if you stay away from trees, metal fences and wooden buildings with metal roofs. If caught in an open field, on a bench, or in an open boat, your chances of safety are increased if you lie down.—Popular Science Monthly.

MISS BROWNE WINS

Tennis Star Playing National Golf for First Time Defeats Miss Collett

NAYATT, R. I., Sept. 5.—Miss Mary C. Browne, Pacific coast tennis star, who is playing national golf for the first time, furnished a great surprise today by defeating Miss Glenna Collett of Providence, former champion and favorite to repeat. The match went to the 19th hole.

Two masterful shots in the pinch gave the former tennis champion the victory. One down playing, the 18th he put a spoon shot of 175 yards through two trees to within five feet of the pin, thereby winning the hole. At the extra hole Miss Browne sank a putt of 15 feet, her ball coming off Miss Collett's into the cup, after Miss Collett had just missed a putt two feet longer.

In the final round tomorrow Miss Browne will meet Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd of Philadelphia, who is the other semi-finalist. Today defeated Mrs. C. H. Vanderbeck of Philadelphia, 2 and 1.

Rep. Corbett Objects to Delay on Court House

Why the commissioners have decided to delay the expenditure of the people's money to add many of the people in their desire to save on the cost of "building materials," the representative asks, has the commission entirely forgotten the "human material?"

Representative Corbett's letter to the commission is as follows:

Lowell, September 5, 1924.
To the County Commissioners
East Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Gentlemen: As the author of the original bill for the erection of a new district court building in Lowell, filed in December, 1923, which resulted in the passage of the measure authorizing your commission to purchase land and erect such building at a cost not to exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, I am amazed at the declaration of Commissioner Darlow in the public press of yesterday, to the effect that your commission intends to delay the awarding of the contract and the starting of the erection of the building until March, 1925.

Are you gentlemen aware of these facts:

First: Lowell is presently in dire need of adequate facilities for the transaction of district court business—and the direct obligation is upon your commission to furnish such facilities at the earliest possible moment—all of which was conclusively shown at the hearing on this bill.

Second: That in Hurd street, Lowell, where you have purchased the site for the district court building, the City Institution for Savings has just started work on the erection of a new bank building; that in the main street, the Lowell Co-operative bank has just started work on the erection of a new bank building; that in the adjoining street the Elks are just completing the erection of a new lodge building; that in Dutton street, the Knights of Columbus have just awarded the contract for the erection of a new building.

If these institutions—managed by men of keen judgment and business acumen—who have the control of the expenditure of the people's private money—are erecting buildings for the transaction of private business, why, gentlemen, should you, in control of the expenditure of the public money, unaccountably delay until next spring the start of the erection of a building for public needs, which needs, as acknowledged, are imperative?

Third: Your commission has been authorized to expend two hundred fifty thousand dollars of the people's money and yet you assign as one of your reasons for delay "that no money will be lost by waiting and that possible saving will result in the cost of 'building materials.'" Has your commission entirely forgotten the "human material?" Hundreds of men unemployed, seeking now and for some time past, a day's work—men who by your commission under the terms of the contract could be given employment in the erection of a public building with the public money all through the fall and long winter months.

Are you unmindful that the city of Lowell, like other cities in the commonwealth, in an attempt to relieve the unemployment situation has within the past few weeks appropriated seventy-five thousand dollars for public works to be commenced at once? And your board, in face of these facts, is going to await the days of next spring before expending two hundred fifty thousand dollars in order to possibly save in the cost of "building materials?"

In all earnestness, I pray you reconsider, lest an indignant public change the complexion of the commission at the coming primaries and election.

Respectfully yours,
THOMAS J. CORBETT.

MINOR CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURT

A fine of $25 was imposed on John Sullivan in district court this morning for assault and battery on Alfred Cox. John E. Ring was fined $15 for drunkenness.

John J. Nichols and Theodore Menard, breaking and entering in the night time, were continued to Sept. 12.

George C. Cheyne was found not guilty of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor and was discharged. A drunkenness complaint was placed on file.

TWO AMERICANS UNDER FIRE

Women Missionaries at Liuh, China, During Attack Yesterday

Were Sent to China by Seventh Day Baptist Missionary Society

WESTERLY, R. I., Sept. 5.—Miss Grace I. Crandall and Miss Susie Burdick, American women who were under fire during the fighting yesterday in Liuh, China, are missionaries sent out by the seventh day Baptist missionary society, which has its headquarters here. The Rev. Clayton A. Burdick, head of the society, had no word from them today.

Miss Crandall, whose home is in Milton, Wis., and Miss Burdick, who comes from Alfred, N. Y., have been connected for many years with the mission hospital and the Grace school for girls at Liuh, the former as a medical missionary, and the latter as a teacher and nurse. Dr. Rosa Palmberg, also of Milton, Wis., is head of the hospital.

There are several other American women connected with the institution, but as their names were not mentioned in the press dispatches Dr. Burdick assumed today that all were safe.

motor trouble which developed on the heavily-laden plane "Boston II." This machine, which has been sent to Picton to permit Lieutenants Leigh Wade and H. H. Ogden to complete their world flight, interrupted by the wreck of their first plane off the Faros islands, was forced down three minutes after taking the air with the machines of Flight Commander Lowell H. Smith and Lieutenant Erik H. Nelson, at 10.10.

It took but a few minutes to repair the motor trouble on the "Boston II" and the three machines were away at 10.35 o'clock on their 620-mile non-stop hop to Boston.

Big Reception in Boston

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—The American world fliers are expected to stop on the soil of their native land today for the first time since they left it at Seattle on April 6th when they drop into Boston harbor and land at the Boston airport. Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith and his companions will be met and escorted here by a formation of airplanes led by Major-General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the United States air service.

After taking to their mooring buoys, the fliers will be greeted by a salute of 21 guns fired by an anti-aircraft battery and the Star Spangled Banner by a military band. They will then be received by a committee of federal, state and municipal authorities who will escort them while they sign the "visitors' register of the Boston airport." Following the ceremonies the fliers will be given an opportunity to rest and dine alone. Every effort to shorten the ordeal of officials and informal reception has been made, in order that the fliers may prepare for the first American leg of their flight.

Provide for 100,000

In answer to a wide public desire to see the marking of the first American post of the historic flight, airport officials have arranged to provide for 100,000 spectators, setting aside ten acres of parking space for automobiles and extensive areas for pedestrians. Railway and street car companies have scheduled extra transportation facilities to handle the throngs.

Special Air Mail Service

BOSTON, Sept. 6.—A special air mail service for the purpose of carrying photographs and films showing the arrival of the world fliers, to New York to connect with the regular transcontinental planes, was authorized today by the postoffice department. Postmaster Roland M. Baker announced that an army plane had been made available for the purpose. The hop-off will be made as soon after the landing as the fliers as the mail is ready.

FITCHBURG MAN HELD ON

MURDER CHARGE

FITCHBURG, Mass., Sept. 5.—Antonio Anzalone, 57 years old, a laborer, pleaded not guilty in district court today to a charge of murdering Itocco Pettio, 45 years old, late last night, at the Anzalone home. He was held without bail for a hearing September 15.

Anzalone, who was a life long friend of the murdered man, declared that Pettio endeavored to effect a reconciliation between the defendant's daughter and her husband, who worked with Pettio. Anzalone told Pettio to mind his own business, according to the story told the police today. Pettio called at the Anzalone home near midnight and demanded admittance. Anzalone says that Pettio threatened to kill him and that when he opened the door for Pettio to enter, Pettio put his hand in his rear pocket as if to draw a gun. Anzalone, according to his story to the police, then shot Pettio through the heart.

Fliers' stay here will be occupied with supervision of the equipping of their planes for the transcontinental flight and a few brief official presentations and a single public appearance on Boston common.

Announced Approach of Airmen

In view of the great public interest in the arrival of the world flight, Maj.-Gen. Patrick has provided that announcement of the approach of the fliers will be made by the formation of the flying escort over Boston common, when the fliers are about two hours distant. The 13 planes after circling over the city will fly to the northeast to meet Lieut. Smith and his companions. In the three leading planes will be Maj. Gen. Patrick, assistant Secretary of War Dwight F. Davis, and Lt. R. C. Moffatt, who last Wednesday made the round trip between Boston and New York delivering pictures of the world flight in two hours and 12 minutes. The air Magellans will be greeted by their fellow birdmen by a series of short "zooms" or sharp dips. Forming on the left of the round-the-world squadron, the escort will accompany them to Boston while army photographers will take pictures for the war department archives and a radio plane, soaring high above the entire flotilla, will broadcast a description of the approach to Boston.

Course of Fliers

The course announced by Lieutenant Smith at Picton this morning will take the fliers into the Bay of Fundy after passing over Amherst, N. S., thence along the New Brunswick coast passing St. John, to home shores at Eastport, Me., passing Bar Harbor, swinging in to pass Portland, and then will have their course laid out by the line of boats to Rockport, Mass., passing over New Hampshire's shore stretch. Major-General Patrick after his aerial salute to Lieut. Smith and his companions and when about 30 miles from Boston, will race ahead to join the official welcoming party on a large anchored near the landing buoy which have been placed in the harbor opposite the airport.

Off Rockport, the cruiser Richmond is holding the station at Cape Ann to give the airmen direction to the Boston airport, which will take them off Marblehead and Lynn. Lieutenant Smith said he did not plan to circle over Boston, adding "we are flying around the world. We must make our objectives as directly as possible."

The world fliers should be within easy view virtually the entire course, as their commander said he intended to fly at a height of about 500 feet. Conditions as reported by the station ships to Lieut. Smith indicated perfect visibility off Portland and this city this morning, with a slight fog limiting vision to 8 miles at St. John, N. B., where Bay of Fundy fogs are famous.

The latter report was made by the destroyer Lawrence. There was very little wind at any point reporting, and in this respect it was believed flight conditions would be good.

With a continuance of morning conditions the fliers were expected to come down the coast at a speed of about 80 miles an hour to cover the 530 miles in seven hours.

Special Air Mail Service

BOSTON, Sept. 6.—A special air mail service for the purpose of carrying photographs and films showing the arrival of the world fliers, to New York to connect with the regular transcontinental planes, was authorized today by the postoffice department. Postmaster Roland M. Baker announced that an army plane had been made available for the purpose. The hop-off will be made as soon after the landing as the fliers as the mail is ready.

Rival Twilight League Leaders to Meet at Alumni Field Tomorrow

"LEFTY" TYLER PITCHES LAWRENCE TO VICTORY OVER CANTABS

Ex-Brave in Old-Time Form in First Game of Important Series—Held North Cambridge Sluggers to Four Hits, and Fanned Ten—Score 4 to 0

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—Lefty Tyler, famous 10 years ago with Rudolph and James on the Braves, showed something of his old-time form yesterday from the Lawrence mound and trimmed North Cambridge, 4 to 0, in the first game of the Little World Series for Boston Twilight League honors. The second game will be played at 5:30 o'clock at Lawrence this evening.

Paul 10 Cantabs. Tyler had considerable stuff, enough at least to make 10 Cantabs turn from the plate in disgust. He allowed but four hits and only once was in danger of being scored on. It was the best performance Tyler has had this season. Frank McCrehan twirled from the Cantab mound, allowed six hits, but got into considerable bother on two occasions. In the second and eighth innings when Lawrence scored its runs. The game play of the game was a triple play by Don Gautreau, second

GEORGE "LEFTY" TYLER

backer on the Cantab team. In the eighth Lawrence scored a pair of runs. Duval led off with a single to right. Swett crashed one at Gautreau's feet. The Holy Cross laid snapped it up before it hit the ground, ran over to second to double up Albert and then continued to third to triple on Sullivan. But for that play the score might have reached higher figures. As it was it pulled McCrehan out of a bad hole. McCrehan only allowed two hits up

With none out Gautreau came through with his intelligent play. Swett crashed one at Gautreau's feet. ## FRANCE VS. AUSTRALIA IN TENNIS DOUBLES

BROOKLINE, Sept. 5.—France and Australia tied at one point each after the first day's play in the inter-zone Davis cup tennis final, will face each other in a doubles match at the Longwood Cricket club here today. Jacques Brugnon, known as France's leading doubles player, will team with René Lacoste against Gerald Patterson and Pat O'Hara Wood.

The French pair is the same combination which carried Anderson and Hawkes of the Australian Doubles last year to 1-0 in the fifth set before accepting defeat. In 1922 they also put up a desperate fight, being defeated 10-8 in the fifth set. The Australian pair will face their third severe test on American courts (this year in this match in the national doubles tournament) they defeated William M. Johnston and Clarence J. Griffin, the California pair, in a five-set match but were defeated in the finals by the Kings brothers, Howard O. and Robert, also of California, in another five-set match.

The defeat of Patterson by Lacoste in singles yesterday, in spite of Wood's unexpected victory over Jean Borotra, holder of the British singles title, places emphasis on the result of today's match. The French-Australian United States in the challenge round will not, however, be decided until tomorrow when the teams will play Wood and Borotra will meet Patterson.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE GAME AT ALUMNI FIELD

Tomorrow afternoon at Alumni field, the Bellevues of the City Twilight League, and the C. M. A. C. of the Lowell Twilight League will endeavor to establish a record in a red-hot ball game. The clash is the outcome of a spirited argument as to which team has the better nine, and the game has been arranged to decide this question.

The Bellevues, having annexed the bunting in the City league, will go after their rival brethren intent on showing their superiority. In all probability, they will inject Summer Track on the pitching dais in an effort to attain their end. If Trask is right, and generally he is, also C. M. A. C. will not be a one-way affair.

It will not be a one-way affair, however. The C. M. A. C., fresh from a successful attack on other teams in the Lowell Twilight League, boasts of several classy performers. They display great form in getting to the crease of their league ladder, and hope to win the bunting in the play-off of the new existing with the Chelmsford A. C. From all indications then, Saturday's game should be a hummer. Beginning to end and one of the largest Alumni field gatherings of the year is anticipated. Play will be called at 3 o'clock sharp. Children under fourteen will be admitted free.

HOME FOLKS PAY TRIBUTE TO "POP" GEERS

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 5.—Edward F. ("Pop") Geers, veteran renaissance, killed on the track at Wheeling, W. Va. Wednesday, when his horse stumbled and fell, came home today to receive the acclaim of his home folk at the finish of his last and greatest race—a winner in the grueling struggle of life.

Simply—the very symbol of the life he lived—marked the last sad rites for the picturesque renaissance. At the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wallace C. Cunningham, with whom he had lived for many years, a private funeral service was conducted by the Rev. William Parker Neilson, pastor of Idlewild Presbyterian church, narrated by the Rev. Edward C. McGowan of Pittsburgh, "Pop's" son-in-law.

The body will be forwarded to Columbia, Tenn., for burial tomorrow.

GOLDEN COVE FAIR PLANS IN THE MOULDING

Plans for the second Lowell fair, to be held at Golden Cove park on the last three days of next week, are progressing very favorably. Entries are coming in for installation on the benches provided for the exhibition of farm products of all kinds. Department heads say the agricultural exhibit, the poultry show and other regular exhibitions will be larger than ever. All communications in connection with exhibits and entries should be addressed to Frank E. McLean, secretary of the fair, 27 Central street, Lowell.

The society will provide horse racing on each of the three days of the fair. Chelmsford band will play each day, and on Friday there will be a special band show, with splendid entries coming to delight men, women and children and all horse fanciers, who delight to pick their favorites in the big ring. Dr. J. H. Sparks is chairman of the committee directing the horse exhibit. On Saturday, the Lowell horse club will give a dog show that will exhibit a host of fancy canines representing many sections of New England's kennelmen.

HARPS OF LAWRENCE AND MARIE'S AMERICANS

The third and deciding game of the series between Marie's Americans of this city and Harps of Lawrence will be staged on the South common tomorrow afternoon. The Americans gave the Harps a 4-2 beating in the first game in Lawrence, but the tables were turned here last Saturday when the Harps won, 5 to 2, in a close 12-inning struggle.

At tomorrow's game, Manager John Powers of the Americans will offer a 15-pound chicken, roasted and stuffed to the holder of the lucky ticket, and the bird will be awarded at Marie's restaurant after the game.

Beginning next week, the Americans will play a three-game series with the Pawtucket A. A. and the winner will then clash with the Bellevues for a purse of $100. Mullin, Regan or Gibbons will work in the box tomorrow, while the remainder of the lineup will include Freddie Crowe, O'Day, Ennis, Gleason, Daley, Barron, Souza, Carr, Brodeur and Tommy Breen.

LOWELL TWILIGHT LEAGUE

This for the first time in the Lowell Twilight League will be broken next Saturday afternoon when the C. M. A. C. and the Chelmsford A. A. rival contenders for pennant honors, will meet in a championship game on the South common. Chelmsford tied with the C. M. A. C. by defeating the Centralville Princeton at Silesia park last Saturday afternoon.

Paddy Noonan, recently returned from a campaign in New Brunswick, pitched for Silesia, but found the visitors a hard-hitting aggregation. Gardner banged him for 15 safeties. Silesia is preparing for a five-game series with Abbot Worsters. The score:

NEW PLEA IN MURDER CASE

Defense Plans Moves in Event of Hanging Decision for Loeb and Leopold

Hope to Carry on Battle to Save Lives of Slayers of Franks Boy

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—In the event of a hanging decision by Judge John R. Caverty in the murder and kidnapping case of Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, defense attorneys are understood to have under consideration two surprise moves by which they hope to carry on the battle to save the lives of the two boys.

The first would be the filing of a petition in a court of equal jurisdiction, setting forth that the boys have become insane since the trial. This petition would ask that a jury be called to determine their mental condition.

The other move, it is understood, would involve two steps, one before and the other after sentence is pronounced. The first step would be the presentation of a motion asking Judge Caverty to withdraw the plea of guilty now entered and change to a plea of not guilty. The second step would be a trial by jury.

EUROPE ON ROAD TO PROSPERITY

Sec. of Treasury Mellon Returns to Desk After Vacation in Europe

Says U. S. Can Exert Greater Influence by Acting in Unofficial Capacity

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Back at his desk after his vacation in Europe, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon today declared acceptance of the Dawes reparation settlement had demonstrated beyond doubt that the United States can exert its greatest influence in untangling Europe's problems by acting in an unofficial capacity.

This country is in a better position to wield its power for world good when acting as a friend and adviser, he said, than it would be if connected officially with the League of Nations.

He asserted that the Dawes plan, brought about through American suggestion, had placed Europe on the road to prosperity and that its effects were apparent already.

"There is a high regard for America's service in this case," he said.
"Most of Europe recognizes the part played by the United States in bringing a sound basis out of what has been a very troublesome situation."

He declared it would be difficult to estimate the full benefit which Europe and the world would get from the steps taken toward an economic peace.
The keystone of this restoration of an economic stability is the evacuation of the Ruhr, he said. He expects little trouble in financing the loan which Germany is about to float.

RADIUM TREATMENT TO RESTORE LOST VISION

SWAMPSCOTT, Sept. 5.—Two men who have been blind but who can now see clearly attended the convention of the American Roentgen Ray Society here yesterday to give witness to the hope that a radium treatment has been found to restore lost vision. Dr. Francis H. Williams of Boston, who treated the men, told the convention, that he did not yet feel prepared to make any definite announcement as to the possibility of the cure until he had gathered further evidence of the efficacy of the treatment.

Dr. Williams discussed general problems in connection with the treatment of the blind and only touched briefly on the cases of the two men.
When one of the physicians asked him to give the convention detailed information of his work, he replied that his treatment justified an optimistic
report to the society.

ment especially as those two men had not been treated exactly alike. He added that he would make a detailed report after results were known in other cases now under treatment or observation. He said he was particularly desirous of not arousing any false hopes of cases to make him feel his treatment justified an optimistic

COMMON SENSE

When a merchant advertises his wares in a newspaper, he does not appeal to the paper, but to its readers. He solicits the patronage of those readers whether he agrees with the policy of the paper or not.

To refrain from advertising in a paper of wide circulation simply because he does not agree with the editor on all public questions, is not using common sense. It is a form of business suicide. It has sent many short-sighted business men into bankruptcy. A dealer might as well put a sign over his store notifying all who do not think as he does that he does not want their patronage. Readers of newspaper advertisements know when and where their patronage is welcome.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD

Superintendent of Streets
Censured for Departing
From Work Schedule

City Engineer Makes Suggestion Relative to Street
Lighting Emergencies

Board Receives Request for the Paving of Willie Street
—Other Business

Supt. Harry Doherty of the street department was censured by members of the public service board at a meeting yesterday afternoon, for leaving a section of Branch st. other than according to the way instructed by the board. City Engineer Kearney notified the board that a section of Branch street, between the car tracks, was being paved with granite blocks without any foundation, whereas the board's vote was that a cement foundation be provided. After a lengthy discussion during which the members took the superintendent to task for changing the work schedule without the board's permission, the matter was referred for a view.

Arrangements were made by the board, at the suggestion of City Engineer Kearney, so that in the future the heads of the police and fire departments and the public service board will have the right to order street lights turned on in case of necessity at other times than according to the lighting schedule.

The meeting was called to order at 4 p. m. with all members present. Councilor Eugene Fitzgerald and William A. Walsh of the Broadway club appeared before the board to request the paving of Willie street from Cross to Fletcher streets, and Cross street from Willie to Fletcher street. The request was taken under advisement and the engineer requested to prepare an estimate.

The councillor also called attention to a dangerous crossing existing in Fletcher street, due to excavation that a board walk be placed at this point and also at Broadway and Fletcher street while paving is under way. The superintendent of streets was instructed to take care of this matter.

He also requested the closing of Willie street. The board voted to view the street before taking any action.

The repair of several holes in Clara and Oliver streets was requested by John E. Regan, and Supt. Doherty was instructed to make necessary repairs.

City Engineer Complaints
City Engineer Stephen Kearney notified the board that the paving of the section of Branch street between the car rails is being done in violation of the public service board's vote. He said that granite block paving is being put in there without a foundation and the board voted to lay blocks on a cement foundation.

Supt. Doherty said it would be a good job without the foundation and that as one-third of the work is completed, it would be a mistake to change now. The engineer maintained that while it might be a good job without the cement foundation, it would not be as good as with the foundation, and asked the board either to pass a new vote to have the work done without the foundation or else enforce its previous vote.

Chairman Murphy said to Supt. Doherty that he should have taken the matter up with the board before doing work in violation of the board's instructions, and the other members also objected to the superintendent's action. Mr. Meloy was of the opinion that the work should be done right, but Mr. Leary asked if it would be good policy to tear up the part already done. After a further discussion along

The same lines, the matter was referred for a view before taking any action.

In connection with the Hall and Alken street widening, the city engineer said the city solicitor desired a conference between a representative of the board, the solicitor, and owners of the property, and Mr. Meloy was named as the board's representative.

Very Good Suggestion
Mr. Kearney called attention to a condition which existed Tuesday evening when a storm caused darkness to envelop the city exceptionally early. He said on that evening fire apparatus was called to Centralville and it was so dark, no street lights being turned on, that policemen in Bridge street had to use their flash-lights to direct automobilists out of the way of the fire apparatus. It was a very dangerous situation, he said, and he suggested that the heads of the fire and police departments be granted authority to order street lights turned on at times other than provided by schedule should there be any necessity.

Members of the board favored his suggestion and it was voted to grant the men in charge of the fire and police departments, also the chairman of the public service board, the right to order street lights turned on whenever necessary.

Communications were received from Councilor Arthur B. Chadwick in regard to the installation of new lights in his district and also requesting the paving of Lincoln street this year, as provided in this year's program. The communications were referred to the proper department heads.

The meeting adjourned at 5:30 o'clock to Monday at 12:30 p. m.

CELEBRATE OPENING OF
NEW CLUB QUARTERS

Within a few months after the 10th anniversary of its organization, Club Lafayette, its members and their friends, celebrated last night the opening of the new club quarters at Merrimack and Cabot streets. It was a thoroughly enjoyable occasion, conducted informally, which brought out the full membership of the club, including the out-of-town members, the mayor, and other invited guests and a splendid program of entertainment was given.

The best proof, however, of the popularity of the club and its wisdom in its choice of a new location, as well as its taste in building the new place into a club, is that so many new applications came in last night that the restricted membership of 100 is probably more than attained, and there is probably also a waiting list. The club, which sold the old Bowers castle in Wamsan street last spring, has taken a 10-year lease of the block building at Merrimack and Cabot streets, a place admirably suited to the convenience of the club members. Of the two floors which they occupy, however, little else than the walls remain of the old building. Both floors have been reinforced with steel beams, partitions have been taken out, and the entire inside of the structure rebuilt. The second floor, which is now the club's first floor, has been made into one large club room, with plenty of easy chairs, plenty of smoking stands, two pool tables, two open fireplaces, and semi-indirect lighting of the most modern type. The club's second floor contains a dining-room, parlor, kitchen and washroom.

The building committee was headed by F. N. Labelle, as chairman, Joseph A. Gagnon, Z. A. Normandin and President Arthur Lambert, ex-officio. On the occasion of the official opening of the club last night, the committee had prepared a brilliant program. It included an exhibition game of pool given by Andre St. Jean, a Lowell boy who was runner-up in last year's national pool tournament, and who got fourth place in the finals. St. Jean was given Andre Bouthillier of the club as a victim, and afterward displayed some trick shooting that was almost magical in some respects. Also on the program were songs by Arthur Groux, A. Howard, piano selections by Rodolphe E. Papin, organist and choir director of St. Jean Baptiste church; Attorney O. M. Tremblay of Nashua, and a turn of card tricks by Napoleon Demers as good as many seen on the big vaudeville circuits. There was also plenty of community singing, with Alfred Ducharme sustaining solos, accompanied by former Mayor Norbert Decelles of Woonsocket, R. I., one of the guests of the evening. A splendid buffet luncheon, available throughout the evening, was served in the dining-room upstairs. Among the out-of-town guests present were A. J. Catlabrig, O. M. Tremblay, E. Labrie and E. Belanger of Nashua, N. H., George E. Langevin and David Gagnon of Lynn, Alfred Fortin of Haverhill and former Mayor Norbert Decelles of Woonsocket, now high in the ranks of the French-American Artisans.

The present officers of the club are: President, Arthur J. Lambert; vice-president, Joseph A. Gagnon; treasurer, Emile J. Gagnon; secretary, Wilfred A. Achin; directors, Alphonse A. Couture, Z. A. Normandin, F. N. Labelle, Moril Doyle and X. A. Dellese.

PRESENTED WATCH

The George W. Fifeild Estate
At Revere Beach, Mass.

The Administrators of the estate of George W. Fifeild, desirous of making final disposition of the remaining holdings of the estate, in order that the same may be settled, have instructed the Auctioneers to sell to the highest bona fide bidders, at unrestricted Public Auction, on the SIXTH Wednesday, September 10, 1924, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, the SIX DIS- TINCT AND SEPARATE PARCELS OF LAND AS SHOWN ON PLAN OF LAND SITUATED ON OCEAN AVENUE IN REVERE BEACH, MASS.

THE SALE WILL TAKE PLACE ON THE PREMISES AND WILL BE SOLD IN SIX SEPARATE PARCELS, COMMENCING WITH LOT NO. 1, AND FOLLOWING IN ORDER. The right will be given, however, to purchase the entire tract in one lot.

Parcel No. 1 has a total area of 28,865 square feet, with a frontage of 158.60 feet on Ocean Avenue, and 81.67 feet on the Boston, Revere Beach and Lynn Railroad.

Parcel No. 2 has a frontage of 186 feet on Ocean Avenue, and 155.42 feet on the Boston, Revere Beach and Lynn Railroad, and a total area of 42,781 square feet.

Parcel No. 3 has an area of 35,656 square feet, with a frontage on Ocean Avenue of 180 feet, and 155.42 feet on the railroad.

Parcel No. 4 has a frontage on Ocean Avenue of 180 feet, with a total area of 27,597 square feet, and a frontage of 155.42 feet on the railroad.

Parcel No. 5 contains a lot area of 18,537 square feet, with a frontage on Ocean Avenue of 165 feet, and 170.27 feet on the railroad.

Parcel No. 6 has 51.49 feet frontage on the railroad, and a 50 foot frontage on Ocean Avenue, with a total area of 4295 square feet.

The six lots has a total area of 148,781 feet, and have a total frontage of 213.60 feet on Ocean Avenue.

This entire tract of land is situated within 250 feet of the Revere Beach Boulevard, and about 350 feet of the beach itself. The location of the entrance to Revere Beach, with a frontage of 855.69 feet on the Boston, Revere Beach and Lynn Railroad, presents an unusual beach development possibility. With the rumored widening of the present beach boulevard, it will necessarily mean the demolition of the present row of amuse- ment, and the building of this particular parcel virtually on the boulevard, and the value of the land, if such a development matures, will naturally be enhanced to many times its present value. This tract of land is perhaps the only remaining undeveloped large plot available at Revere so close to the ocean and directly on the electric line of street cars. The lot is divided into six parcels, therefore the opportunity is given to all to secure either one or more of the lots. The lots as shown on the plan are splendidly situated, and the moving backward of the beach boulevard is a splendid opportunity to the owner of the land now owned by the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company, bespeaks of it as a location for any beach purpose, either for summer home, year round residence, amuse- ment, hotel and the like. Because of its size, the promoter of any large amusement enterprise, requiring extensive area, is given the chance to purchase at open competition this unusual amount of vacant land, as sear- rarely, if ever, presented to buy such an amount of vacant land, as sear- dom is an large tract held by any one estate, and more particularly a beach property.

TERMS OF SALE: 25% of the purchase price must be deposited in cash, or satisfactorily secured to the auctioneer, as soon as it is struck off. Other terms made known at the sale.

By Order of JAMES J. KERWIN AND JOHN P. WRIGHT, Administrators with the will annexed of George W. Fifeild.

Odd Fellows' Hall Decorated With Season's Offerings—Exhibition of Garden Flowers, Fruits and Vegetables—Typical Grange Dinner Served—Big Meeting

Familiar emblems of the fall harvest season, with fulsome colored offerings from the fields of Pomona, Flora and Ceres, cultivated and garnered lavishly by Middlesex county husbandmen and wives, decorated the interior of Odd Fellows hall, Bridge street, today. The exposition of Nature's bounties, created a beautiful setting for the opening meeting of the fall and winter season of Middlesex North Pomona Grange. A splendid program was arranged for the initial meeting after the summer discontinuance of regular grange business sessions. The morning exercises were late in starting, owing to the tardy arrival of some of the members from outlying towns such as Dunstable, Tyngsboro, Wilmington, West Chelmsford and Burlington. Some grangers brought guests to spend the day in Lowell with the Pomonas. The big feature of today's rally was an exhibition of canned fruits, vegetables, garden flowers and fresh fruits in the shape of apples, grapes, plums, etc. Prosperous out-of-town grangers brought in handsome specimens of Macintosh and Gravenstein apples, the massed displays being placed on the

FIRE AT THE BLEACHERY

Old Unused Dryer House Badly Gutted by Fire This Morning

An old dryer house building, owned by the Lowell Bleachery and located in Bowen street, was swept by flames this morning and the entire interior destroyed. Company officers would make no estimate of the damage.

The building is one of the oldest in the Bleachery yard and has not been in use for some time. All drying machinery was removed recently and employees of a local junk dealer had been engaged there for several days removing pipe lines.

The structure is of the old mill construction type, of brick with slate roof, two and one-half stories in height with gable roof, and about 100 feet long and 30 feet wide. Attached to the building, at the northerly end, is a wooden ell, which was only slightly damaged by the flames.

The interior of the building is open from the first floor to the roof and from end to end, and an air flue runs the length of the building.

Upon Reaching Boston, Fliers Will Step on Native Soil for First Time Since Apr. 6

PICTOU, N. S., Sept. 5.—(By the Associated Press) The American army round-the-world fliers set out from Pictou for Boston today at 10.35 o'clock (Eastern Standard time) this forenoon on the last lap over foreign territory and the final jump overseas of their long and arduous globe-encircling trip.

DRUNKENNESS STILL ON INCREASE HERE

There were 243 arrests for drunkenness during the month of August, according to figures compiled by Probation Officer Joseph Cronin. Of this number, 22 were women, a record for the current year. During the month of August last year, there were 221 arrests for drunkenness. Seventy-five of last month's offenders were placed on probation and 97 were released. If the present rate continues, says the probation officer, the end of the year will witness an increase of more than 300 offenders over last year.

REP. CORBETT OBJECTS TO DELAY IN WORK ON COURT HOUSE

Inquires if County Commissioners in Their Desire to Save in the Cost of "Building Materials" Have Entirely Forgotten "Human Material"

Rep. Thomas J. Corbett, author of the original bill for the erection of a new district court building in Lowell, in a letter to the county commissioners today, takes vigorous exception to their decision, announced yesterday, that the contract for the erection of the new building in Hurd street will not be awarded until the spring.

He expresses amusement in view of the facts in the case, first: Lowell is and has been for years in dire need of adequate facilities for the transaction of district court business; second: Right in Hurd street where the site for the new court building is located, and in nearby streets, extensive building operations are in progress, under the direction of men of keen judgment and business acumen and finally with the great number of men out of work, the representative inquires the reason

PEACE OF WORLD'S PEOPLES DEPENDS ON ARBITRATION, SAYS HERRIOT

French Premier Accorded Great Ovation Before Assembly of League of Nations—Hopes U. S. Will Not Refuse to Continue Useful Collaboration

GENEVA, Sept. 5. (By the Associated Press)—Premier Herriot of France, addressing the fifth assembly of the League of Nations today, began by saying that he brought the word of France to the assembly, and that word was peace.

He hoped that the United States would not refuse to continue its useful collaboration in disarmament, especially now that arbitration had come in as a feature.

The French premier mounted the tribune in front of the jammed auditorium amid a hum of interest and before beginning his address received a great ovation.

He urged the league commissions immediately to study the question of arbitration.

FIERCE FIGHTING CONTINUES IN THREE SECTORS IN CHINA

Added Fury Given to Battles by Movement of Airplanes into War Zone and Reported Concentration of Chinese Battleships For Action

SHANGHAI, Sept. 5, 5.30 p. m. (By the Associated Press)—Attacking more intensely the Luohu sector, about 30 miles northwest of Shanghai, continued their assault all last night and late this afternoon appeared to be preparing for another night of continuous fighting.

This information was brought to the city by a competent eye witness, who visited the battle front during the afternoon. The firing was becoming more intense as hour passed after hour, it was stated, both sides using artillery, mainly three-inch guns.

Explosive artillery shells were used for the first time today. Large numbers did not do so, had no authority to enter any agreement respecting China with the governments of France, Japan or Great Britain.

They pointed out that the nine-power treaty was an absolute prohibition against any such action, and would have to be abrogated and a new treaty reported and ratified before the Washington government could become a party to such an arrangement as that described by Mr. Rothstein.

RUSSIAN CHARGE FALSE, SAYS SEC. HUGHES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(By the Associated Press) When informed of the statement made by M. Rothstein to the foreign correspondents at Moscow, relative to American policies in China, Secretary Hughes said:

"It is not only false, but ridiculous."

The secretary refused to supplement this brief statement, apparently not wishing to dignify the Rothstein observations by giving them further attention.

Other treaty experts of the state department, however, pointed out that the American secretary of state, even if they desired, and they were sure he

State Primary Election Studded With Contests

of state before the last hour for filing there had expired and therefore they were obliged to file again under the public policy referendum of the state ballot laws.

Papers for the three men, containing a sufficient number of signatures in each case, were filed yesterday with the local board of election commissioners, which makes it certain that their names will appear on the state ballot on election day early in November. Under the public policy referendum, each candidate was obliged to file names to the total of 2 per cent of the vote cast in their districts at the last gubernatorial election.

Many Contests in Fall Swing

Many political fights are in full swing as primary day approaches and while most of the fights on the state ticket are within the republican party the democrats will figure in one or two ballot battles in local representative contests.

The democrats have nominated one man for governor, Mayor James M. Curley of Boston and while his nomination is as sure as the sunrise, two republicans are fighting tooth and nail for the opportunity to oppose him. They are James Jackson, state treasurer, and Alvan T. Fuller, present lieutenant governor. Both men are represented in Lowell by active organizations and at present the situation in this neighborhood, at least, has a rather even-Stephen aspect.

Because of the candidacy of a Lowell man Dr. Otis Allen, the state treasurer contest has awakened considerable interest. Seven candidates are in this scramble, the others being: William A. Allen, unknown; Frederick J. Brown, of Reading; Fred J. Burrell, Roger Keith of Brockton; State Senator William S. (Continued to Page 11) school, but had neglected to comply with that rule of the road which requires stopping and inquiry. The left rear hub cap of the Brown vehicle had bent and guard of the automobile and left sundry scratches upon its body paint. Driver Brown said he did not know who owned the wagon he was driving or its load of corn, so a trip to the station was next in the line of natural progression. There, it was found he carried no hawk's or peddler's license and it also was said that the Humane society was not in favor of having the horse used any more.

The load of corn still is in the vicinity of the station house and Brown is not far away.

MAKES SERIOUS CHARGE

13-Year-Old Girl Accuses

Father of Encouraging Her Waywardness

Charged with encouraging his 13-year-old daughter to commit unbecoming acts, Leo Tablano was arraigned in district court before Judge Enright this morning, and on a finding of guilty was sentenced to serve five months in the house of correction. He appealed.

The case was the first one of its nature to be presented in the local court, and because of the delicate nature of the testimony, the hearing was held in private, Judge Enright clearing the courtroom of all persons not connected with the affair. Given by the daughter in juvenile court today. She was charged with being a delinquent child and in defending herself, accused her father of having encouraged her to waywardness. The specific charges then lodged against the parent was to the effect that he "did knowingly and wilfully encourage, aid, cause, abet, connive at and knowingly do acts to produce, promote or contribute to the delinquency of the daughter." ## LOWELL DISTRICT COURT

Stiff Sentence and Fine for Second Offense Liquor Case Defendant

Edward Farrar was fined $100 and sentenced to serve two months in the house of correction, in district court this morning, when he was adjudged guilty of illegally selling liquor. It was his second violation of the prohibition amendment.

Farrar was arrested yesterday afternoon following a raid on his premises at 36 Suffolk street by Officers Aldrich, Keegan and Killoy, of the liquor squad. An agent was employed by the officers and purchased a pint of moonshine for a dollar, using a marked bill. When the transaction had been completed, the officers entered and placed Farrar under arrest. He pleaded this morning's finding.

Osman Ahlman, charged with illegal sale, was continued to Sept. 11, and Bessie Melkowski, illegal keeping, was continued one week.

Dollar Day

towns, and early is the word to use in describing the grand rush promised for the Saturday "Dollar Day" celebration.

A wise shopper will make the most of his dollar by snapping up the Saturday offerings on the counters of Lowell merchants emporiums catering to the multitudes.

There will be stirring surprises for everybody. A dollar spent tomorrow means money saved. Reductions of prices on goods of high values, are made on the basis of the dollar where merchandise cannot be sold for one dollar.

Many stores will mark down a great variety of seasonable merchandise stocks to meet the dollar sales campaign. Amazing values are to be given to make "Dollar Day" a real breaker for Lowell stores combined in this wonderful money-saving campaign.

From 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Saturday, Lowell merchants in the list of the "Dollar Day" stores, issued by the Lowell chamber of commerce retail merchants' committee, conducting the merchandising campaign, will offer genuine bargains that cannot be equalled.

Some merchants have large stocks of goods that must be sold before the fall and winter merchandise arrives for the store shelves. Fast quantities of dry goods, ladies' and infants' wear, electric appliances, men's furnishings, furniture, men's clothing and shoes, every traveling apparel, jewelry, stationery, etc., etc., are to be tomorrow. "Dollar Day" stores will exhibit the brown "Dollar Day" cards, so you will find the bargain made easily. Better make out your shopping lists tonight and be prepared to make an early start for visitation to the official "Dollar Day" stores tomorrow.

A wise shopper will make his dollar go far tomorrow, and he will have every assistance from courteous salesmen and salesladies in every merchandising establishment visited, for the store proprietors are out to break all records in sales tomorrow, and the "Dollar Day" label means getting double values in many lines of goods in daily demand for use in homes and for general living purposes.

Save money! Do your shopping Saturday! You will find the bargains that are advertised—and you will be surprised at the money you save when you snap up the goods displayed for this one day-only merchandising campaign. And don't forget that new goods are being sold tomorrow at the same discount bargain prices. The price cuts in finest merchandise are more inclusive than ever before.

Be sure and read the official list of Lowell's "Dollar Day" to be found on another page of today's Lowell Sun. The names of two well known Lowell merchandising concerns were not included in today's page list of "Dollar Day" stores. The J. & L. Barter, ladies' specialty shop, 141 Merrimack st., and "La Victoire, millinery, 177 Merrimack street," should be included in the official list issued by the chamber of commerce retail merchants' committee.

Riverside Mill Sample

Suitings

$35 to $45 Value

EXTRA TROUSERS FREE WITH EACH SUIT

$29.50

This mill catered mostly to high-class tailors, who get anywhere from $35 to $50 for a tailored made garment. Being a critical trade they handle only the finest woolsens money can buy. The patterns and fabrics are really excellent. They were made by one of America's best mills. I have secured choice patterns. In fact a complete tailoring woolen stock, as you know this is my dull season—yet I made this purchase because I know a real honest-to-goodness saving of hard-earned dollars is welcomed by the best of us. During the dull season this sale is the best advertisement I could give to a business that has stood the acid test for fifteen years in Lowell and is hale and hearty, and growing to manhood.

This is an excellent opportunity for my old customers to take advantage of these values, which I consider to be the best ever offered in this city. MAIL ORDERS to old customers only, whose names appear in our card index.

IN NEW YORK

By Stephen Hannagan

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Persons of all ages, walks of life and sections of the country write stage plays, but few of them are ever produced.

Each day the office of a prominent producer is swamped with manuscripts. Miss Oello Houston, a talented play reader, relates that few manuscripts submitted do not have some point of unusual interest and originality, but that few of them maintain a sustained interest throughout.

Even those penned by successful playwrights frequently have to be rewritten in many spots.

See plays, the leading incidents undoubtedly taken from the lives of the writers, predominate.

Although many excellent ideas are suggested by unknowns they fall short of production in that they have no definite plot and are not practical because the author knows nothing of the intimate workings of the theatre—the mechanics of the stage.

Miss Houston reads between five and ten plays each day. Always she reads from the first word to the last, no matter how uninteresting the subject matter may be.

She is one of the very few people connected with the New York scene who has not written, tried to write or at least planned to write a play.

TRAIN-WRECKER

Nine-year-old Ralph Roberts of Toledo, O., went down to Millfield, O., to visit his grandparents. But life in the little Hackney Valley town grew too tame for him. He wanted excitement. So he rolled a big block of wood out onto the New York Central's tracks, then wired it down "just to see what would happen." A passenger train came along and smashed into the obstruction. The engineer and fireman were killed and several passengers were injured.

MOM'N POP

AT THE RIALTO

What is a white sin? Is it a sin committed with the full knowledge of the person committing it, or is it a sin committed unknowingly? Is it a deliberate sin again society or is it just something innocently done? Most of us forgive ourselves for committing what we "believe" to be white sins. Do others forgive us as we forgive ourselves? Did Hattie Lou Harkness commit a sin or was she sinned against? Did handsome Spencer Van Gore sin when he married Hattie Lou? Did Grace Van Gore commit a sin when she took Hattie Lou with her?

See the beautiful cameo-like star, Madge Bellamy, in "The White Sin" which will be seen at the Rialto all week starting next Monday. Understand the position she was placed in and then judge for yourself what you would have done under similar circumstances.

DISCUSS DRACUT SCHOOL PROBLEMS

Dracut school committee held its regular meeting last evening with numerous citizens on hand to discuss many important problems covering school affairs, transportation of school pupils and public health. It was a lively session from start to finish. Six citizens of the Mammoth road section of Dracut appeared to protest relative to the transportation of school children in that district. George Willett was spokesman and stated that the complaints came mostly from the Ledge Hill district. Children have to walk too far to go to school, he said, and it is a dangerous thoroughfare in the bargain. Others speakers included Mr. Walter Andrews, Mrs. Norberg, Supl. Charles L. Randall and Mrs. A. P. Rest. The matter has been taken under advisement by the school committee.

Miss Edna Cutler was appointed to a berth on the health committee to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Harvey Somers.

SEN. WHEELER RENEWS ATTACK ON KLAN

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 5.—Consistent supporters of the La Follette ticket threw the New England stump-tour of Senator Wheeler, their vice-presidential candidate, into high gear today and started him away from Providence just after daylight, scheduled to make five speeches before leaving again. The itinerary began at Williamstown, 10:30 a. m., and continued through Hartford, noon; Waterbury, 2 p. m.; Bridgeport, 5 p. m.; concluding with New Haven at 8:30 p. m. Senator Talor, Connecticut state chairman for the La Follette forces, completed the planning overnight, and the automobile party moved out preceded by advance speakers to hold the crowds.

Concluding his stay in Rhode Island, Senator Wheeler last night notified an audience at Providence that the La Follette forces would refrain from endorsing or otherwise interfering in the campaigns of candidates for state offices. He touched up local politics on another point, and branched into a review of criticism of the Ku Klux Klan.

General Dawes, republican vice-presidential candidate, says there is some justification for the Ku Klux Klan, in places where law is not being enforced. Senator Wheeler declared: "He mentions Herrin, Ill., and Oklahoma. I'll admit that law isn't enforced everywhere. One reason is because the Coolidge administration doesn't do its part towards enforcement. But there isn't anywhere in the United States, justification in conditions for the existence of the Ku Klux Klan."

TO FIGHT SOCIALISM AND COMMUNISM

BERNE, Switzerland, Sept. 5.—To fight all forms of socialism, communism, state ownership and similar movements is the object of the international middle class congress which has just closed its sessions here. The speakers all maintained that private ownership and management constituted the only sound basis for an economic system. All the European countries were represented in the congress, notably Germany, France, England and Austria.

JUVENILE ARRAIGNED FOR MANSLAUGHTER

William P. Morris, 16 years old, operator of an automobile which struck Michael Dudek in Lakeview avenue on August 8, and caused injuries which resulted in the latter's death, was arraigned in juvenile court on a manslaughter charge this morning. Following the result of the inquest, the case was continued to October 2.

TELLS DYSEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour, Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly common and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bismarated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bismarated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a pinch of the grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of peptic pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bismarated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and the bismarated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."—Adv.

OPENS FIGHT ON KLAN

Gov. Blaine Says it is Menace to Peace and Security of Citizens

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 5.—Governor Blaine started on open fight on the Ku Klux Klan when he announced an order had been issued suspending George B. Clementson as district attorney of Grant county. The order is effective Sept. 5.

The executive, in a letter, declared that "the Klan is a potential menace to the peace and security of our citizens," and that "it incites to riots and lawlessness and engenders the possibility of bloodshed, such as has been repeatedly demonstrated at Heroin, Ill., and other places." Referring to the Klan he said "It must not be permitted to get a foothold in Wisconsin."

The letter was written as a result of a hooded demonstration at Boscobel three weeks ago, and of difficulties at Muskego, also in Grant county, as a result of which one man was shot and wounded.

The governor charges that Clementson failed to follow his orders regarding prosecution of those claimed to have been involved in the Boscobel demonstration, when a deputy sheriff is said to have been assaulted.

GRETNA GREEN TO BECOME AIR CENTER

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Gretna Green, long famous for romantic runaway marriages, is preparing to become an important air centre as a base for travel to Ireland. Travelers will cross to Belfast in an hour and a quarter, and business men of northern Ireland believe the new service will be much to bring Ulster into closer relationship with England and Scotland.

WILL OPEN GASOLINE FILLING STATION

On Saturday, Sept. 6th, the Atlantic Refining company will open a gasoline filling station at Merrimack and Tremont streets. This station will be operated by the company and will further extend their distribution of gasoline and motor oils in New England.

In addition to marketing, the Atlantic Refining Co. is also producers and refiners of petroleum, operating four refineries, three in Pennsylvania located in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Franklin and one in Brunswick, Ga. This company also does an export business with Europe and South America. These large refineries enable them to market gasoline and motor oils of uniform quality.

The Atlantic Refining company is a pioneer in the development of the drive-in filling station, being one of the first oil companies to see its advantage to the motorist inasmuch as this type of station offers a high standard of service with a maximum of safety and convenience.

In New England, stations have been established in all the principal cities and towns from Stamford, Connecticut, north to Lowell, including 15 stations in Boston, Lynn and Salem.

As an acquaintance making inducement, The Atlantic Refining Co. will distribute free oil coupons on Saturday, Sept. 6. Each purchaser of five gallons or more of Atlantic gasoline will receive a coupon good for one gallon of Atlantic motor oil.

MOTORCYCLE OFFICER HAMILTON INJURED

Motorcycle Officer Charles Hamilton was slightly injured this morning when his police vehicle collided with an automobile operated by Napoleon Milot of White street.

The accident occurred in Riverside street about 10:45 o'clock, the motorcycle, according to Milot's report at the station, suddenly swerving in front of the heavier vehicle. Officer Hamilton received a painful injury to his hand and complained of injury to his back.

TAX PAYERS WARNED BY CITY TREASURER

Residents of this city who have not paid their 1923 personal or poll taxes are warned today by City Treasurer Fred Bourke that September 10 is their last day of grace. On that day a list will be compiled of persons whose personal or poll taxes are unpaid and this list will be given to constables to collect according to the manner provided by law.

No estimate of the amount owed the city by delinquent tax payers could be given by the treasurer this morning, but he said there were a great many who had failed to pay their taxes, which were due last October.

THE DAWES BROTHERS' REUNION

It was quite a reunion the Dawes brothers had the other day. Three of them came to call on the most famous member of the family, Brig. Gen. Charles G. Dawes, republican vice presidential nominee. And here we see them all. From left to right are Henry M. Dawes, comptroller of currency. Benjan G. Dawes, Rufus C. Dawes, and the general.

One of the first things Lieutenant Nelson did when he reached Reykjavik, Iceland, was to dump out a boot-ful of water that he had been carrying in his plane, the "New Orleans."

State Primary Elections

Steaded With Contests

Commissioners in Middlesex county invariably are republican and they usually have clear and unopposed majorities, but this year, Commissioners Alfred L. Cutting and Walter G. Wardwell are opposed by William G. Andrews of Cambridge and Andrew L. Wardwell of Somerville. The two names of Wardwell may cause some confusion, but the present incumbent, "Walter," has secured much incumbency to fix his identity in the minds of the voters of the county and feels

President of re-election:

Three seek to Oppose Walsh:

For United States senator, the present junior senator from the state, David I. Walsh, democrat, is extremely popular with his party, is unopposed for the nomination. On the republican side of the fence is a battle-royal, however, with Frederick H. Gillett, speaker of the national house of representatives; Frederick W. Dallinger, congressman, and Louis A. Coolidge, well known business man and president of the United Shoe Machinery Co. All three men have brought their rights into Lowell, speaking themselves as well as ## through representatives.

Another Lowell man, Abel R.

Campbell, widely known real estate man and developer, seeks state office this year, being a candidate for the republican nomination for member of the governor's council from the sixth district of which Lowell is a part. He is opposed by Charles Sumner Smith of Lincoln, who seeks re-election after four years of service, and Frank R. Bailey of Lowell. Mr. Campbell sought to have Mr. Bailey's name taken off the primary ballot on the grounds that he had mis-stated his place of residence, but after a hearing before the ballot law commission the petition was denied. That Mr. Campbell will receive a large vote in the northern end of the district is unquestioned.

For representative in congress from the fifth district, Hon. John Jacob Rogers is unopposed for the republican nomination and Humphrey O'Sullivan is the only candidate of the democrats. They will oppose each other on election day.

Eight in 14th District Fight

The 14th state representative district, comprising wards 1, 2 and 3 of Lowell will be the scene of a seven-cornered contest next Tuesday, with two men to be nominated and a third, Mr. Rountree, to be added on election day. The present representatives from this district, Owen E. Brennan and Charles H. Slowey seek re-election. They are opposed by Richard J. Donohoe, a candidate two years ago and employed locally as a printer; Eugene A. Fitzgerald representative in the city council from ward 2, and Patrick F. Nestor, all democrats. The republicans also have two candidates in this district, Harry W. Leavitt, a resident of the South Lowell district, and John P. McCarthy.

The 16th representative district, where representatives Victor F. Jewett and Henry Achin, Jr. long have flourished, has seven candidates, all republicans. Along with Messrs Jewett and Achin, Fred O. Lewis seeks re-election. Adelard Berard, a former representative, would again return to Beacon Hill and the three other aspirants are Louis W. Richard, a candidate for the city council from ward 3 last year; Napoleon J. Vignani and William U. Blanchard. With no democrats in the field, nomination is the same as election for three men.

In the 15th district, City Councillor Frederick A. Sadlier and Charles F. Donahue, both of ward 4, will be primary opponents and the one nominated will have Councillor Daniel F. Moriarty and Paul J. Angeli, both of ward 5, to cope with on election day, as both will appear on the ballot as independent candidates.

No contests appear in the Eighth senatorial district, Senator Frank H. Putnam, republican, is unopposed and William E. Martin of Dracut was the only democrat to take out papers. This district takes in all local wards except ward 9.

In the Seventh senatorial district, which embraces ward 9, Senator Charles P. Howard of Reading, has no opposition.

The hours for voting on primary day will be from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. and the election commission has all arrangements in hand to care for the vote. The specimen ballots are expected to reach the city tomorrow forenoon. They are being printed this year in Charlestown state prison and have been somewhat delayed in delivery.

Home Again

HAL COCHRAN'S
DAILY

Dragged and weary and sore at the feet, you're back from vacation again. You're nearing your home; it's a block down the street. You hustle to get there, and then—

Why, surely, this isn't the place where you live. The scenery is not quite the same. And then, when another once-over you give, you find what is really to blame.

The grass has grown long and the yard is unkempt; it's littered with papers and such. While you were away tender care has just slept; there's an absence of tidiness touch.

The porch is just covered with ad tressers' wares and the mail box is filled to the top. There's milk stacked galore on the old back porch stairs. The milkman was not told to stop.

Thus vacation's over and you have returned. What greeting! Alas and alack. And yet all this clutter is readily spurned for despite it, you're glad to get back.

SIMS SAYS

A British woman writer says women can't understand men. Well, we say this is lucky for both sides.

The first sign of fall is when milk begins to taste like the cow has been eating old straw hats.

New York artist left his wife and ran away with a model, but he'll bet she won't be a model wife.

Autos may take the place of street cars some day. They are trying to do it now by knocking them out of the way.

In St. Louis a drug clerk shot a man, and if the man asked the price of postage stamps we hope the clerk goes free.

The chief wonder of the presidential race is it is struggling along without a cow-milking or hay-pitching contest.

The chief trouble with money is it never is quite enough.

Los Angeles girl who drank iodine was saved and now she can claim she thought it was restaurant coffee.

charge of the string of horses that had been maintained by the late turfman was announced last night by Robert Neal, nephew of "Pop" Geers and business manager of the Geers stables. Before leaving for Memphis to attend his uncle's funeral, Neal declared no decision had been reached on the filing of racing contracts made for "Pop" Geers for the balance of the season.

W. L. HARDING HITS SCOUTS PLAN RECEPTION
SEN. LA FOLLETTE TO COMRADE

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 5.—The issue in Minnesota is "whether you are going to have socialism," declared W. L. Harding, former governor of Iowa, in an address here last night, to leading Republicans of Minnesota.

"The issues in this campaign are not new," said Mr. Harding. "The struggle for liberty has gone on for years. Yet in this hour we have a man who has nominated himself, who has written his own platform, and who has notified himself of his own nomination."

"Bob La Follette is the candidate of the socialist party. The issue in Minnesota is whether you are going to have socialism."

"When the deadline begins we'll go down rapidly. You've got to buckle on your armor and get out and fight. Not with swords, but with your interest in a sound, ideal government. The main thing for the Republicans of Minnesota to do is to get behind their whole party ticket," he said.

They eat grasshoppers in South America, and it might be a good idea to try this diet.

The Boy Scouts of Lowell are planning an enthusiastic reception to Scout Warren Vander Burg, the local council's representative to the International Jamboree, held in Copenhagen, Denmark. Scout Vander Burg, with the rest of the American troops is aboard the Cunarder S. S. Lancaster which is due at New York late Saturday. The Lowell boy is expected home sometime Tuesday afternoon or evening.

Scout Vander Burg will be met at the Middlesex street railroad station by all the Lowell troops who will march through the city to the rooms of the Lowell council, in Kearney square. The detailed program will be announced later.

NATIONAL DEFENSE DAY

General Committee on Local Observance Will Meet
This Evening

Large Attendance Anticipated
—Many Important Matters to Be Discussed

Lowell citizens' committee for the local observance of "National Defense day" will hold its third important business meeting this evening, in the temporary headquarters now open day and night in the old Courier-Citizen building. Many important matters are coming up for discussion and disposal. Chairman Maj. Dana Palmer, anti-aircraft expert, will speak on the importance of a large attendance from every organization in the city, invited to co-operate in Lowell's patriotic demonstration.

In the event of a major emergency requiring the drafting of a citizen army, Lowell will be called upon to furnish nearly 5000 men, according to General Coffin C. MacDonald of Lowell, post 87, American Legion, who is chairman of the local "National Defense day" publicity and press committee.

In 1917 and 1918, when Lowell furnished its quota for the draft, the men were usually sent to some large camp, at which place they were assigned to some unit with which they received their training. Under the new plan, men will be sent directly to some unit, which in all probability will be organized in Lowell, and the early training will be given here.

The units which Lowell will furnish include many branches of the army. The war department, through the corps area representative, has given out the names of the units to be supplied from Lowell. In most cases the officers are all assigned and are receiving some training in their respective duties. Following are the units:

Reservists: Eleventh Corps Troops
Regimental headquarters and headquarters battery, 353rd artillery, 13 officers, 56 men.
Service battery—359th artillery, 8 officers, 159 men.

How quickly that rash disappeared!

THOUSANDS of users have wondered at the quickness of the action of Resinol Ointment and Soap. The answer is that it is not a surface treatment, but one that reaches the depths of the pores and attacks the source of the disorder, starting the healing right.

The first touch relieves the itching, burning and soreness and a few days persistent use rarely fails to clear away the trouble.

When the skin is once restored to its normal condition, the daily use of Resinol Soap is generally sufficient to keep it healthy. Ideal for the complexion—unsurpassed for the bath and shampoo. Ask your druggist what he knows about the Resinol products.

North-Pomona Grange Holds Meeting

Room with a huge dark plush curtain as a background.

One of the first to appear with genuine country products, fresh-picked and all-quality, was Mr. George W. Peavey of North Tawksbury. Past Master L. Peavey was also an early speaker, bringing the usual quality exhibit from the Peavey farm in Draught.

Before 10.30 the hall parking place for the dinner, dishes and cloths where the home garden products from far corners of Middlesex county were displayed, the first "county fair" to be held in this vicinity this year, was on full swing.

This afternoon there was a special display of home-canned fruits and vegetables, direct from the headwaters of the Tawksbury Canning Club. It was wonderfully good and showed remarkable cleverness in the "putting up" process on the part of Tawksbury farm-bred women and girls. An auction of many of the food products was scheduled after the exhibit.

Today's first meeting of the Middlesex Pomona, brought together nearly 300 members. There were impromptu reunions before the business meeting was called to order. Mrs. Sarah K. McNeely, the popular master, being personally greeted by every one present as a mark of appreciation for excellent services rendered in her important role. Mrs. Grace W. Dawson of West Chelmsford, lecturer, also received a warm greeting upon her arrival to handle the reins of the day's meetings.

The morning session was devoted principally to members relating stories about vacation happenings. Travel talks of an informal nature brought out much interesting material for discussion. The members took pleasure in describing the different places visited during the summer months when taking auto jaunts to far places.

Just before the dinner, Mrs. Dawson, lecturer, presented a report covering the annual summer meeting of the Massachusetts State Grange Lecturers' association, which was held in Durham, N. H. It was a very successful affair, and Middlesex Pomona's report of work performed by Lecturer Mrs. Dawson was highly indorsed. The association may meet in Lowell next season.

Regret was expressed by the grangers, when it was announced that a beloved and staunch supporter of all grange activities, Mr. Samuel Law Taylor of Westford, could not attend today's opening rally. Mr. Taylor was listed six months ago to read a surprise feature paper today, the topic of the Taylor article being "First Aid to Farm Animals." The paper may be read at a meeting later in the fall.

Typical Grange Dinner

Dinner at 12.30 p.m. was typical of grange dinners of yore. Today's was a bountiful one, for the fall harvesting season brings to the Pomona members' tables many vegetables and fruits that are ripened and in prime condition for a farmers' feast of the kind the Pomona members always partake.

Today's old-fashioned banquet included baked beans, fish balls, potato salad, tomatoes, corn, cucumbers and fresh apple pies. The repast was provided and served by the following members of the Dunsable Grange: Mrs. Herbert Swallow, chairman; Miss Mary Darling, Mrs. Mary Keene.

This afternoon, Pomona entertained many Lowell visitors, the meeting being open to the public. The principal speaker was Worthy Master Ernest B. Gilbert, worthy master of the Massachusetts state grange. He gave the members a very encouraging talk, reviewed some grange history, told of the increasing membership and what it meant, and declared that Middlesex Pomona's position today in state grange circles was high in the esteem of all affiliated granges as well as state and national officials.

An extra feature of this afternoon's entertainment, was the appearance of the Cummings Musical trio of Woburn. They were children from the Hanson school, and showed good training as promising young artists. Miss Arline Cummings gave enjoyable readings, and in a duet with Joseph Cummings played several cornet solos, Harold Silva acting as piano accompanist.

Will Exhibit Apples

The next meeting of the Pomona will be held in Odd Fellows hall, Oct. 5; an "apple program" is scheduled. There will be a special exhibit of apples, with Mr. Edward F. Dickinson in charge. Miss Eunice Austin will offer an exhibit of cooked apples and apple products. In the afternoon session, there will be a discussion of the question: "Shall we plant more orchards?" Miss Philista Flint will read a paper on "How to Cook and Serve Apples," and Miss Frances L. Sherburne will discuss the food values of different kinds of farm fruit. Draught grangers will serve the Oct. 5 dinner, and it is expected that Dr. Leslie R. Smith, deputy commissioner of the Massachusetts department of agriculture, will be the chief afternoon speaker.

TRUCK DAMAGED BY FIRE

A truck owned by the Outlet Fruit company was slightly damaged by fire early this afternoon while parked in Market street. A telephone alarm was sounded at the Central fire station and the company responding quickly extinguished the blaze, which was confined to the cab.

NEW ENGLAND WEEK

New England week is now less than three weeks away and while various other matters, political and otherwise, engage the attention of the public, yet it is of the greatest importance that this community in common with other municipalities of New England does its full share in making the coming drive a great success.

What is necessary for this purpose? Simply an organized effort to make New England products known to the rest of the world; to purchase such products and thus assist in the resumption of industrial activity throughout the New England states. It has been proposed to have an exhibit of the products of our mills; but if these are not shown in any public hall, they will be found on the counters of our big stores.

The chamber of commerce a couple of years ago got up a very attractive exhibit of the products of our textile industries and the nearest approach to any exhibit of New England products since held in this city, was seen at the Home Beautiful exhibition conducted by the Master Builders, but that was not confined exclusively to New England products.

We want to send the products of our factories to every part of this country and overseas and to this end the drive of New England week is but the initial step. The textile industry has not had fair treatment from the government and to overcome such discrimination should be part of the program for the advancement of New England industries.

It is expected, therefore, that every New Englander interested in the prosperity of our industries will boom New England products not only during the coming week but continually and give a practical demonstration of regard for home industries by showing a preference for their products. This, of course, will be impractical unless these products are offered for sale in our stores with proper labels to distinguish them from products made perhaps in England, Germany or Japan.

SEN. WHEELER'S SPEECH

Senator Wheeler in his speech at city hall the other evening entered into an arraignment of the republican party on the evidence of corruption brought out in the investigation at Washington. What he said in this regard, we presume, was very largely true and what he said in reference to the dilatory course of President Coolidge in dealing with the corruptionists was also true; but when he intimated that these things militated equally against the democratic party he was wrong and he knew he was stating an untruth. He said both parties are ruled by Wall street, that the men from Wall street dictate the nominations to the republican convention, then enter the democratic convention and do the same. That too, is a falsehood. In reference to the nominations of the democratic convention there never was any more free from outside influence. The predatory interests, as the senator termed the so-called enemies of the people, had nothing to do with the nomination of John W. Davis. But Senator Wheeler must make some excuse for his recalcitancy to the party that honored him in the past by electing him to high office. He said the corrupt influences of Harding administration could be traced from the Chicago convention of 1920 to the little green house on K street, Washington, which he made the headquarters for the high-class bootlegging business in connection with the department of justice. Yes, the trail of the corrupt politician was apparent; but the Wall street burlesque did not fit here and Senator Wheeler knows very well that Wall street lost its power of dictation when the federal reserve act, the work of a democratic administration, became operative. The monster was slain by a democratic president and a democratic congress; and Senator Wheeler insults the intelligence of his audience when he asserts that Wall street is still controlling the conventions and politics of the country.

We are rather sorry that Senator Wheeler lost his head to such an extent as to desert the democratic party; but he is evidently of radical tendencies and when he tries to excuse his radicalism by comparing his course to that of Sam Adams, Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson, he simply makes himself ridiculous in the eyes of the people. Senators Shipstead, Brookhart, Magnus Johnson and La Follette are his ideals. He says they were elected by a combination of the farmer-labor vote; and if the farmers and organized labor have to depend upon such men for reform and relief from adverse conditions, they will wait in vain for redress.

The democratic party headed by John W. Davis and that party alone offers all the people relief from the mismanagement and corruption of the republican regime. It is the party of the people, and the third party made up of an aggregation of radicals, headed by La Follette and Wheeler, merely raises a political will o' the wisp to lead the unwary into the slough of despond.

TOURIST TRAFFIC

Alvan Macauley, president of the Packard Motor company, has an article in the September issue of the American Motorist in favor of routing tourist traffic past the congested points in cities, rather than through these points. He holds that the average tourist is not a potential customer in the communities he traverses and that heavy through traffic has not proved to be an asset to the merchants and business interests that have insisted on leading it past their doors. There is here a suggestion that will probably be adopted by many cities as a means of solving at least in some degree the very perplexing traffic problems that are now under consideration.

The through traffic has no desire to become entangled in city congestion and the cities in their effort to reduce such congestion may find it to their advantage to direct this kind of traffic along suburban routes, connecting with main highways and thus avoid adding to the congestion which is now so very annoying in practically every large city of the country. Tourist traffic is rapidly growing in volume from year to year so that the adoption of Macauley's plan of diverting it from the busy centers may soon become imperative.

FARE STORIES

Some weeks ago a writer of the New York Herald-Tribune perpetrated a bold fake upon his paper by writing a story of a palatial rum ship or floating hotel outside the twelve-mile limit to which thirsty folk went to enjoy a spell of the real old-time saloon life. It seemed strange at the time that the reporters of the other papers failed to find any evidence of the existence of the floating hotel. They began to investigate. The veracity of the writer was questioned, and finally the story was proved to be a fake, pure and simple; and the Herald, to vindicate its reputation for reliability had Prince of Wales, who says the prince to discharge the writer, Sanford Jarrrell, who drew upon his imagination for his facts.

Now comes the contradiction of another story that went the rounds of the press of the entire world. It comes from the hostler or groom of the Prince of Wales, who says the prince never fell off a horse in his life. "When a man is thrown," said he, "he leaves the horse completely. But the prince, he sticks on. It was the horse that fell and the prince, he fell with the animal." That is a very good "alibi" for the prince, but it hardly seems credible, having gone the round of the British press with the expression of deep apprehension lest "his Royal Highness" should be killed in a fall and change the whole line of succession to the throne.

DEATH DEALING AGENCIES

French inventors claim to have perfected an airplane that can be directed without a crew and piloted by wireless while carrying explosives to be dropped on the enemy armies by radio control. This invention has been announced on various occasions, but no such airplane has been produced so far as authentic accounts have appeared. If such an invention were practical, the world would know it, and it has only been mentioned as a possibility in war, on a par with the alleged "death ray," which, according to the inventor, is not deserving of the name. It seems that such agencies are mentioned even before they exist in order to discourage future possibilities of war. Thus far poison gases and explosives are the most destructive agencies known.

TEACH BOYS TO SWIM

That unfortunate accident by which two boys lost their lives by drowning in the Merrimack, offers another proof of the necessity of teaching boys to swim. Not many boys learn to swim under the age of seven years; but the time will come when it will be compulsory on parents to teach their children to swim even at that early age. Protection against drowning is just as necessary as protection against smallpox or diphtheria. We venture to say that there are ten drownings, aye, perhaps twenty, for every death due to smallpox. Parents have a serious responsibility in looking after their children who cannot swim. The schools should teach all children the art of swimming not later than when they enter the grammar grades.

CRIME OF ARSON

The police and the fire marshal are to be congratulated upon the conviction of two local men on the charge of arson. No man who would set fire to property at the risk of starting a conflagration that might entail great loss of life and property, is fit to be at large in any civilized community. We have had a considerable number of suspicious fires; but the evidence of guilt was not obtainable, and hence, the incendiaries, if any, escaped. The object in such cases is to windle insurance companies, but arson entails such grave danger to the entire community that the news of the sentence of the two men found guilty of the crime, is received with general satisfaction.

State Treasurer Jackson has hatched a big conspiracy against the political progress of Lieut. Governor Fuller. Mr. Jackson is serving as state treasurer, and during the war he connected himself with the Red Cross. Now he is trying to cash in by getting prominent friends to boom his candidacy for the wonderful services he rendered during the war. Those services were but a mere bagatelle compared with those of the humblest private who served in the ranks overseas. Yet the service men are not numerously seeking public office.

It is reported that diamonds have been found in glacial drifts in our country. One glacial drift near Kearsarge was recently discovered in gravel during the sinking of a well in Wisconsin. Possibly La Follette and his party may discover a diamond mine out in that state. Geologists, however, are of the opinion that diamonds were carried along from somewhere in Canada and they expect that eventually the mother diamond mine may be discovered up north. Geologists are our best authorities on such matters.

What a beautiful and blissful country this would be if nobody under eighteen years of age were allowed to do any work. The widowed mother would have to support herself and her family in idleness until her children reached the age of eighteen before she could legally ask any of them to do a single turn of work. Would not such a provision of law furnish an excellent training for a life of idleness?

Dancing teachers have put the ban upon shivering and wabbling dancing which they introduced a few years ago. They are now wisely getting back to the old-fashioned waltz and dances of similar movement and decorum.

There is a growing feeling that tinkering the constitution of the United States is dangerous business for the reason that a great many people are prone to vote away their liberties for some amendment that bears the label of moral reform.

It is to be hoped that some of the wily politicians will attain sufficient power to rule the empire in a civilized way. Usually after these outbreaks of internecine strife in China, the other nations have to go in and save millions from starvation.

Suddenly all the patriotism and political virtue in the land is said to have settled in Wisconsin and a few other states in that region. 'Twas not thus in war days.

Business in August was a little better than in July and this month it will be much better than last.

Pre-Johnson Chairs

"What is the date of those chairs?" inquired the visitor from New York at the Cheshire Cheese. "Eighteen seventy-five, sir," replied the waiter. "Heral!" protested the disbelieving American. "That was before old Dr. Johnson was born." "You surely don't think we got new furniture for him?" asked the waiter, pityingly.

September

Sweet is the voice that calls
From babbling waterfalls
In meadows where the downy seeds Are flying.
And the soft breezes blow,
And eddies come and go
In faded gardens where the rose is Dying.

Among the stubbled corn
The blithe quail pipes at morn
The merry partridge drum in hidden Places,
Above the reedy stream
Where busy spiders spin their filmy Laces.

At eve, cool shadows fall
Across the garden wall,
And on the clustered grapes to purple
Chime, turning;
And partly vapors lie
Along the eastern sky,
Where the broad harvest-moon is red-ly burning.

Ah, soon on field and hill
The wind shall whistle chill,
And patriarch swallows call their Flocks together,
To fly from frost and snow,
And seek for lands where blow
The fairer blossoms of a balmy weather.

The cricket chirps all day,
"O fairest summer, stay!"
The squirrel eyes askance the chestnut brown;
The wild fowl fly afar
And hasten southward ere the skies
Are frowning.

Now comes a fragrant breeze
Through the dark cedar trees,
And round about my temples fondly Lingers,
In gentle playfulness,
Like to the soft caress
Bestowed in happier days by living fingers.

Yet though a sense of grief
Comes with the falling leaf
And memory makes the summer doubly pleasant,
In all my autumn dreams
A future summer gleams, Passing the fairest glories of the present.

He Was Too Late

A provincial clergyman was in the habit of paying frequent visits to London, and aspired to membership of a club. In due course he was put up for and elected to a club which was noted for its late hours and the general air of jollity of its members. The new member, blissfully unaware of its reputation, paid a visit to London and stayed at the club. After his long journey from the north, he retired to bed very early and awoke equally early. He dressed and went downstairs to look for breakfast before eight o'clock, and in the dining-room was surprised to discover that his only occupant was one weary waiter. As the clergyman was about to sit down at one of the tables, the waiter approached him and said, apologetically: "I'm sorry, sir, but we are not allowed to serve suppers after seven a. m." —London Answers.

Cactus and Cuckoo

Luther Burbank, the plant wizard, is now growing a thornless edible cactus in the Arizona desert, and a reporter asked him recently if it was true that the government proposed to stop his work, which is being conducted on government lands. "The government won't interfere with me," Mr. Burbank said, "unless its fear about my edible cactus are as mistaken as the senator's ideas about the cuckoo. A senator, you know, said in a speech the other day: "The other side, gentlemen, is taking credit for things it has not done. It is like the cuckoo, which, as you are aware, gentlemen, is the only bird that does not lay its own eggs." —Rehebebs Sunday Herald.

French Pawnbroker, "Aunt"

In Paris and other big French cities the pawnbroker is called, "My Aunt." In France one needn't blush in doing business with the pawnbroker, for he is the state; that is, the government conducts the pawnbroking business. It does it very well, too. If I am to believe the testimony of some Americans who have "traded" with "My Aunt" while awaiting delayed remittances from home, "My Aunt" has had a good year's business. She does little business nowadays with the workingman, for he is always in work. The center of poverty has moved. It is the white-collar brigade which, unable to make both ends meet, resorts to "My Aunt." Oddly enough, "My Aunt's" shop in Paris is on "The Hill of Pity." Not a misprint for pity. —World Traveler Magazine.

Resented Kisses

In Tasmania an old man was sitting in front of his cabin, over the door of which was painted, "Let no parle francs in." A tall, dejected-looking Frenchman, who happened to be passing up the road, noticed the inscription, and, rushing up to the colonial kissed him on both cheeks. "Ere, what's your game?" demanded the sundowner gruffly. "Don't do that again." "But you was a counterman of mine," exclaimed the Frenchman. "Certainly not!" retorted the colonial. "But you put 'let no parle francs' over your door." Said the Frenchman, pointing to the inscription. "Well, what of it?" asked the sundowner in mild surprise. "Why, it means 'French is spoken here.' 'Well, I'm blowed!' exclaimed the Tasmanian in deep disgust. "A painter chap came along here the other day and put that up for me. He said it was Latin for 'Bless my happy home.'"

LAWN PARTY OPENS

Large Crowd Enjoys Splendid Program on St. Anthony's Parish Grounds

The twinkling of a myriad of gay, beautifully colored lanterns, the strains of sweet sounding musical instruments, the happy and contented faces of both children and adults, all lend to the grounds of St. Anthony's church the appearance of a celestial garden or a fanciful Utopia. The church lawn party is well under way. The proceeds of the affair will go to swelling the parish building fund. The party opened last evening and will close tomorrow.

Beneath the exotic, shimmering but subdued flare of hundreds of gaily-colored Japanese lanterns the extensive lawns adjoining the rectory became, as it were, a part of another world. The joyous shouts of happy children pierced the night air as the peals of silver chimed. Every booth and table erected about the mid-way was tastefully and prettily decorated. An excellent dance floor built on the sward furnished an opportunity that young people were not slow to grasp. A special program had been prepared which included musical numbers by the O'Reilly troupe, well known Lowell entertainers; vocal selections by James Deignan and Martin H. Maguire; and dancing by Alice Sousa, Georgia Mello and Manuel Dias. Tomorrow afternoon a series of special features will be held by and for the children of the parish.

Rev. Joseph Orillo, acting pastor of the parish, is in general charge of the lawn party. He is most ably assisted by an advisory committee composed of Annibal L. Sousa, chairman; Anthony L. Sousa, secretary; Mrs. Rosa T. Solome, Mrs. Mary Vise, Miss Bernardette M. Bettencourt, John Bettencourt, Manuel Innocencio, John Rosa and Louis Peter.

The soliciting committee is composed of the following: Misses Rile, Santos, Bernardette Bettencourt, Mary Mello, Gertrude Braga, Mary Lobas, Rose Mello, Edith Picasso, Celeste Silva, Eugenia Bettencourt, Louise Picasso, Bela Solome, Beatrice Vise and Mary Cort.

Quendros, Antonio Braga, Antonio Caldeira, Manuel Floria, Joseph B. Parry, Joseph J. Rigo, Annibal L. Sousa, Joseph Souza and John Bettencourt.

The following committee had charge of the miscellaneous table which was run by the Sunday school: Miss Bernardette Bettencourt, chairman; Misses Glafira Silva, Mary Mello, Mary Costa, Mary C. Rebelio. On the fancy work table, conducted by the members of St. Anthony's society were the following: Misses Eugenia Bettencourt, chairman; Mary C. Repozo and Mary V. de Behn.

Airman Rushed Away in Taxi—Plans For Big Reception Made Today

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—A welcome more in keeping with his historic attempt at achievement than was accorded Lieutenant Antonio Locatelli last night, when he was hurried through a side entrance of the Grand Central terminal into a waiting taxicab by the constabulary.

Elaborate ceremonies for greeting the Italian airman, who was wrecked off Greenland in his attempted flight from Italy to New York, were to have been held in the station with the Italian consul-general and other dignitaries in attendance.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Sept. 5.—Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur, who arrived here yesterday from Seattle, on the flagship of the United States battle fleet, will make a survey of oil reserves in California and of the Teapot Dome oil reserve in Wyoming before he returns to the east, he said.

Fire in Bleachery

Shortly before 5 o'clock this morning an employee of the junk dealer was using a gasoline torch in melting a pipe when suddenly flames burst out on the floor and wall nearby. He ran to the wall of the building to secure water to extinguish the blaze, but when he returned the flames had spread over a large area of the building.

Other employees of the junk dealer working in the building, rushed to the Bleachery office for assistance and a passerby sounded an alarm from Box 15, Moore and Leoux streets, at 5 o'clock.

When the fire apparatus arrived, the entire interior was a roaring furnace and flames were bursting through the windows all along both sides of the building.

A number of hose lines were brought into action, some being connected to city hydrants and others to the Bleachery high pressure fire supply system.

Gradually the flames were forced back from the windows and firemen carried hose lines into the interior, where they were able to direct them at places where the fire apparently had centered. The intense heat and thick smoke made their work exceptionally difficult.

Tons of water were poured into the flames before the fire was brought under control in the lower section of the building and then it was found that the timber work of the roof, under the slate shingles, had caught fire and was burning rapidly.

Officers of the Bleachery were at the scene of the fire but could give no estimate of the loss. The building, they said, was covered by insurance. As the building has not been used for some time, they said, the fire would not interfere in the slightest with the Bleachery's operations.

TWO GREEK SOLDIERS KILLED IN BULGARIA

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Sept. 5.—It is officially announced that two Greek soldiers have been killed in a conflict on Bulgarian territory south of Petrich. The announcement quotes a report from the commander of a Bulgarian post, who says he saw four Greek soldiers and one civilian two kilometers from the Greek frontier, advancing toward a pasture in which cattle from the village of Manastir were grazing, with the intention of driving off the animals. When called upon to withdraw, he declares, the Greeks refused and the Bulgarians fired, killing two of them.

The bodies are being kept in Bulgarian territory and a commission has been appointed to investigate the incident.

COOLIDGE SPEAKS IN BALTIMORE TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Government business took up practically the entire attention of President Coolidge today, with the regular cabinet meeting in the morning and appointments with other officials on his engagement list.

Mr. Coolidge has been devoting considerable attention to his plan for investigating agriculture through a commission, and it has been indicated he would announce the personnel of the commission at an early date. He also has asked for additional data on the report of the tariff commission relative to the sugar duty, but a decision on this is not expected immediately.

The president will leave tomorrow morning by automobile for Baltimore, where he will deliver an address at the unveiling of the Lafayette statue. He will return immediately after the exercises.

World Peace Depends

Arbitration, upon the successful operation of which, he believed, the peace of the world's peoples depended.

"But arbitration must not be a trap for nations of good faith," he added. The premier pleaded for some system of protection for small countries, emphasizing that the great powers could always protect themselves. Referring to Germany, he said:

"We never desired the misery of the German people. France does not live on hate."

The applause was renewed when M. Herriot continued that Germany, if she desired admittance to the league, should have the same treatment as other nations seeking admission. France adhered to the league covenant, but wanted to make it a living covenant.

France Proposed Arbitration

Great cheers were given when M. Herriot declared that it was France herself who had proposed the arbitration feature of the London agreement for a reparation settlement. He hoped, he said, that one of the purposes of this fifth assembly would be the incorporation in its program of achievement of a proviso that a future aggressor will be a country that refuses arbitration.

In his plan for some plan for protecting the smaller countries, M. Herriot, drawing his conclusions from the philosophy of Pascal, said justice and force must go hand in hand, but that neither should exist without the other. He declared France had no illusion that security could be had by means of force alone. He agreed with Prime Minister MacDonald that any hurried prepared disarmament conference would be doomed to failure, and he insisted that when one was held it should be entrusted to the League of Nations.

Arbitration, security and disarmament were the three pillars of peace, the French premier set forth.

"France," he concluded, "holds out a fraternal hand to all your countries. It will give her joy, even among the sadness of her own ruins, if she can help that divine flower peace to bud."

M. Herriot agreed with his British colleague that the statutes of the permanent court of international justice should be amended.

Italy Ready to Cooperate

In the discussion that followed Premier Herriot's address ex-Premier Salandra of Italy said his country was desirous of cooperating in every way in the work of peace. He approved of the principle of arbitration.

Italy, he declared, favored the progressive reduction of armaments and desired to avoid the danger of the formation of rival groups. He expressed the opinion that it would be dangerous for a nation to renounce the force necessary for its own defense.

Lord Parmoor of England said on behalf of the British delegation he wanted to thank Premier Herriot for his address and the high-minded principles advocated. He hoped that concrete agreements would be reached before the adjournment of the assembly. He approved of M. Herriot's insistence upon the necessity of protecting small countries, but he declared equality of treatment would never be obtained if the effort to get it were based on the use of military forces.

LA FOLLETTE TO HOLD SERIES OF CONFERENCES

WASHINGTON Sept. 5.—Senator La Follette, independent candidate for president, expects to hold a series of conferences here within a week with his campaign managers, including John M. Nelson, in charge of main headquarters in Chicago, and Gilbert E. Roe, eastern director with offices in New York city. No definite date, however, has been fixed for the meeting.

While Mr. Nelson and Mr. Roe are in Washington, it is probable that they will discuss campaign activities with members of the committee which is assisting them in the management of the campaign.

Particular attention will be paid during the discussions, it was said today at La Follette headquarters, to the finance problem.

NATIONAL DEFENSE DAY

Bishop Nilan of Hartford Urges Catholic People to Co-operate in Observance

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 5.—In a letter to be read in the Roman Catholic churches of the diocese on Sunday, Rt. Rev. John J. Nilan, bishop of Hartford, urges co-operation of the Catholic people of the state for the observance of National Defense Day, saying:

"The spirit of peace, national security and welfare will be enhanced by this action and the lofty ideals of our democracy maintained without blemish."

An attractive wedding bell. Congratulations were then bestowed on the lucky girl. After the opening and praising of the many gifts, refreshments were served and an entertaining program was carried out with solos sustained by Miss Rose McCarthy and Mrs. Richard Foley, accompanied by Miss Vina Garity. Miss Alice Bird, while a very attractive feature, was a rose dance by dainty little Rita Handley. The affair soon broke up and the guests, some representing the Hon. Marché Company and Charles Fadden, retired to their respective homes after spending a delightful evening.

SOVIET RUSSIA TO PROTEST

Believes Agreement Reached During Sec. Hughes' Stay in London

MOSCOW, Sept. 5. (By the Associated Press.)—Soviet Russia takes a serious view of China's affairs and is not going to remain indifferent, says M. Rothstein, member of the presiding committee of the foreign office and chief of the press department, in an official statement to the foreign correspondents.

"We have full ground to suspect that some arrangement was arrived at between the great powers as regards China during Secretary Hughes' stay in London," the statement asserts. "This action was contemplated long ago, but America hesitated to make up her mind until the Russo-Chinese agreement."

"We believe that the United States abandoned its policy of the open door and decided to divide zones of interest in China. It seems that England receives the south, France the province of Uman and Japan, Manchuria."

The participation of Japan was not yet clear, said M. Rothstein, but certain actions of Manchuria indicated that Japan had been given permission to occupy it.

"Whatever scheme the powers have arrived at," he added, "Soviet Russia is going to raise protests, as, being a neighbor to China, it affects Russia closely and fills her with great anxiety."

M. Rothstein took the occasion to deny that the Russo-Chinese treaty contained any secret clauses.

A cottage house at 380 Riverside street owned and occupied by Walter Dufresne and family suffered $2000 fire loss last night when the rear of the house and attic were swept by flames. A lighted match in the hands of a son, Alfred, while searching for a pair of shoes in a storeroom near the kitchen, was responsible for the fire. An alarm was sounded from Box 77, Riverside and New York streets, and firemen worked for more than half an hour before the fire was extinguished. Property damage will reach $1200 and personal property loss will place the total at $2000.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL AND VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

Lowell men and women in attendance at the annual conference of Normal and training school faculties at Bridgewater State Normal school, last night heard John M. Brewer of the graduate school of education of Harvard university give a most instructive and scholarly address upon "What the Normal School Should Do About Educational and Vocational Guidance."

Mr. Brewer spoke as follows: "The normal school should interest itself in the question of guidance because the test of education, as well as the test of life, is the result of education as shown in the behavior of the person educated. The duty of the teacher may fairly adequately be defined as helping children to organize."

MYSTERIES OF THE ANCIENTS

The Department of Agriculture of Egypt has seeds which were found in age-proof containers in the tomb of King Tutankhamen which they will endeavor to propagate at their Agricultural Research Laboratories. These seeds may represent herbs containing medicinal properties that this age and generation knows not of. It was the simple roots and herbs of the field that half a century ago produced Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a remedy that has never been equalled in overcoming ailments peculiar to women.—Adv.

extend and improve their individual and co-operative activities. "Thus the aim of education, as expressed in terms of guidance, presupposes the analysis of life into its several activities as for example, education, home membership, citizenship, recreation, care of person, religion, etc., as well as into the attitudes, among them the ethical, thoughtful, co-operative and cultural each of which must permeate all of the activities. Again, each of the activities and attitudes itself must be analyzed

if we are to know exactly what each problem is in terms of definite aims. "Under educational guidance, for example, it is safe to say that we have almost wholly neglected the difficult problems connected with school adjustment. How to Study is a serious problem as ever with students of all ages. Few children have an adequate idea of the scope of educational opportunity and even students entering Normal schools have very hazy ideas about the teaching profession and its various opportunities. Choice of studies, choice of courses, choice of vocational schools, adjustment of school to home life and other possible activities, and many other similar topics indicate the work ahead of us in educational guidance. "In vocational guidance we seem to have little realization of the spiritual and civic possibilities. Occupational life is incorrigibly co-operative, and no one except a parasite can achieve his highest success without being of real service to others. Occupational life is intimately bound up with civic life as shown by the fact that the republican, democratic and progressive party platforms

forms give respectively 43, 56 and 62 per cent of their total space to the discussion of occupational problems. One important aim of the vocational guidance movement is to permeate public consciousness with occupational knowledge and wisdom, in order to aid everyone in the co-operative solution of these difficult problems. "The Normal school should interest teachers for their work and aids by means of a variety of extension courses in the after care of teachers. It must resume major responsibility for vocational guidance, and it must, under no circumstances, leave this work to those particular normal schools which specialize in industrial or manual training work. "Normal school teachers should organize committees on each of the major objectives in education. These committees as well as the heads of departments should aid in the analysis of every subject of the curriculum, asking of that subject such questions as: Who uses this study in life? How is it used? What information is necessary? What skills are required? What technical knowledge is needed? What social understanding and wisdom must be developed? "Teachers must be prepared also for such a conductor in a lightning rod, the steel frame of a building, a metal flagpole, or a grounded radio aerial. It is only when it finds a better conductor than air in a man, an animal, a tree, a frame building, or the wooden masts of a ship that lightning actually causes fire or loss of life.

Tall structures, such as the Eiffel tower in Paris and the Washington monument, have been struck by lightning many times without damage. Most skyscrapers probably have been struck without the occupants being any the wiser, because the steel skeletons conveyed the electricity harmlessly and silently to the earth.
You are practically safe from lightning if you are indoors during a thunder storm, and you are reasonably safe outdoors if you stay away from trees, metal fences and wooden buildings with metal roofs. If caught in an open field, on a bench, or in an open boat, your chances of safety are increased if you lie down.—Popular Science Monthly.

DODGERS WIN TWO FROM BRAVES WHILE PHILLIES BEAT GIANTS

Victories Put Brooklyn Virtually on Even Terms With Leaders—Washington Increases Lead in American League by Defeating Red Sox While Athletics Trim Yanks

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The Brooklyn team today stands in second place, three points in the percentage column behind the Giants.
The Dodgers yesterday won a pair from the Boston Braves, jumping from third to second place when the Braves skidded against the Cardinals. And Brooklyn's victories were decisive, the first game going to the Braves, 5 to 3, and the second taking the same route, 9 to 1. St. Louis thumped Pittsburgh, 9 to 5, and the slumping Giants lost to Arthur Fletcher's Phillies, 10 to 6. The Cincinnati Reds, fighting desperately to land in the first division, blanked the Cubs, 3 to 0.
The Washington Senators yesterday,

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

A special meeting of the representatives of the City Twilight League will be held in Marie's restaurant next Monday evening, following the last game of the season on the common between Belmont's and the Centralville East Ends. Arrangements will be made for the annual banquet at this meeting, and all interested parties are urged to be present. Deposit money will also be returned to the managers by the league president. In case of rain Monday evening, the meeting will be held at 7:45 o'clock.

Coach Jimmy Liston of the high school football team is anxious to develop a kicker for his 1924 gridiron eleven. The high school team faces its stiffest contest in years and a good kicker may mean a whole lot. Formal practice will begin next Tuesday afternoon. The uniforms will be distributed Tuesday morning.

The stage is all set for the big Bellevue-C.M.A.C. clash at Alumni field, formerly Spaulding park, next Saturday afternoon. The Bellevue team, the pennant in the City Twilight League, and have defeated several outside organizations, including the St. Peter's Cadets. The C.M.A.C. seem to have the edge in the Lowell Twilight League and will give the Bellevues a hot contest. The game will start at 8 o'clock and a big crowd of rooters is looked for.

TENNIS AND GOLF WONDERS MATCHED

NAYATT, R. L., Sept. 5.—Tennis and golf wonders were matched today in one of the two big events of the national golf championship.
Miss Mary K. Browne of Santa Monica, Calif., who, after winning national tennis titles, decided several years ago she would learn golf, meets Miss Glenn Collett of the Rhode Island Country Club, who is regarded by friends and some experts as the best golfer of her sex in the world.
Miss Browne's game has improved daily in her first national golf tournament and she has shown that she is an excellent match player.
She advanced to the semi-finals by defeating Miss Bernice Wolf of Oshkosh, Wis., yesterday by 5 and 4, the most decisive victory of the day. In addition Miss Browne had the day's best medal for nine holes—a 14.
The second semi-final match is between two of the former golf champions, both Philadelphia girls—Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd—whose record as a holder of titles is unsurpassed, and Mrs. C. H. Vanderbeck, who has long been a formidable contender in the national tournament. Mrs. Hurd advanced by defeating Miss Marian Burns of Kansas City, who had previously eliminated the champion, Miss Edith Cummings of Chicago. Miss Vanderbeck in the third round defeated Miss Audrey Faust of St. Louis and Miss Collett triumphed over Mrs. Quentin F. Felner of New York.

BOSTON BOUTS CALLED OFF

Both of these "midges" are in great condition. Hebert is training at Gallagher's camp, Rock Pond, N. H., while Woods is working out in Boston. As a novel feature Matchmaker Dodge is making arrangements to have the Firpo-Willis fight radioed during the bouts.

TUNNEY AND GREB MEET MONDAY

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 5.—Light heavyweight Champion Gene Tunney and Harry Greb, middleweight title holder, who meet in a ten-round no-decision bout here Monday night, are expected to arrive today to complete their training for the contest.
With the arrival of the contestants it is expected that the problem of who will referee will be solved.
Tunney will have George Engel, Greb's former manager, in his corner Monday night. Engel has had the satisfaction of seconding Tunney to two victories over Greb, the latter left his (Engel's) innamement.

PITCHERS RELEASED BY PITTSBURGH

MARIE'S AMERICANS WIN

Pin Bee on Pawtucket A. A.
—Gleason Star of Game
—Score 6-1

GAME TONIGHT
Marie's Americans vs. Belmonts.

The Pawtucket A.A. suffered its second successive reverse by losing to Marie's Americans in their final 1924 City League appearance on the South common last night. The score was 6 to 1 with the restaurant boys on the long end.

As "Chick" Tardiff, Pawtucket pitching ace, did not arrive in time to toe the rubber, the mound assignment was given to Ed Twomey, who proved that he was a good third baseman. Ed was not in his element as a twirler and was looking for right opportunity hits, including a lousy triple by Eddie Carr. Twomey rattailed, however, by cashing out a two-sacker against Purky Daly, who performed in the box for the Americans.

Pinky Birkenhead fattened his batting average by slamming out two hits and hits fair to lead the league in batting when the figures are tabulated. Jim Scully, who garnered three hits for a perfect average the evening previous, went hitless, although he was robbed of a sure safety when Freddie Gleason went back in to center field to catch an O'Farrell fly. Gleason played one of the best games of his career in the field last night. He went after everything and got what he wanted. In the seventh inning, he added to his laurels by contributing a second feature catch of a highly off Twomey's bat. Gleason did a couple of somersaults, timing the sphere and came up with the ball in his gloved hand.

Duke Barron made a classy stop of a grounder off Paro's bludgeon in the third. The atom sped down first base way like a machine-gun bullet, but Barron speared it with his outstretched paw and raced for the bag to touch it ahead of the speeding Paro.

Seven innings were played for the first time in two weeks and there was plenty of good baseball despite the one-sided score. The Americans got to Twomey's offerings in the opening stanza. Alex Ellis had grounded out. Francis O'Day singled safely into left and Gleason laid down a sacrifice to the pitcher. Daley caught an O'Farrell fly. Home. Barron slammed one to Rubber Hoyle who tossed wildly to Birkenhead and Daley, registered. Souza also hit one at Hoyle, who again erred and allowed Barron to cross the pan with the third run of the inning.

Three more American runs came to pass in the following inning on Carr's triple. Tommy Green's single, a fly by Ellis, a safe bunt, a sacrifice fly by O'Day, a base on balls to Daley and a passed ball on a dropped third strike. The only Pawtucket run was made in the fifth on Twomey's double and Francis O'Day's fly. Hoyle also pitched in this frame but was thrown out at second on an attempted puffer. The score:

IROQUOIS PUT INDIAN SIGN ON P. A. C. OUTFIT

Last evening the Iroquois defeated last hitting hard playing frame in a fine Junior Twilight League game on the Alken street grounds. Scoring 6, Ducharme, star twirler for the victorious redmen, held his opponents down to two hits.
McDonough and Belanger featured in the field while Laffiere, pitcher, pitched a perfect game. A beautiful catch that deprived Belanger of a certain three-bagger.
Two of the three runs scored came across the plate by the first base runner who walked to first but tore around the remainder of the sacks on Roy's three-bagger. Gagnon made a wild throw and Roy himself came home. In the fourth frame Ducharme brought in the final run when he singled, reached second on a passed ball, stole third and came home on an out to first. The score:

"LEFTY" TYLER PITCHES LAWRENCE TO VICTORY OVER CANTABS

Ex-Brave in Old-Time Form in First Game of Important Series—Held North Cambridge Sluggers to Four Hits, and Fanned Ten—Score 4 to 0

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—"Lefty" Tyler, famous 10 years ago with the Braves and the Red Sox, showed some of his old-time form yesterday in the first game of the Lawrence and Cantabs series, held at Alumni field. Tyler pitched the Lawrence team to a 4 to 0 victory over the Cantabs.

Tyler had considerable stuff, enough at least to make 10 Cantabs turn from the plate in disgust. He showed his old-time form in the first game of the Lawrence and Cantabs series, held at Alumni field. Tyler pitched the Lawrence team to a 4 to 0 victory over the Cantabs.

GEORGE "LEFTY" TYLER

backer on the Cantabs team. In the eighth Lawrence scored a pair of runs. Duval led off with a single to right. Sweet smashed a grounder to left and Sullivan placed one between third and short to left, scoring Duval and Sweet. Desrosiers bunted and McCreehan, hosted by Albert, laid down a bunt between McCreehan and Woods at third to fill the sacks again.

Falls Off Triple Play
With none out, Gautreau came through with his intelligent play. Tamm crashed one at Gautreau's feet. The Holy Cross had scored 11 up before it hit the ground, ran over to second to double up Albert and then continued to third to triple on Sullivan. But for that play the score might have reached higher figures. As it was it pulled McCreehan out of a bad hole. McCreehan only allowed two hits up to that awful eighth. In the second he passed Tamm, after Gautreau made a star stop-off Albert's hit, Jim Thorpe, the champion Indian, playing right field for the Lawrence team, clipped one to right and Tamm went to third. Tyler fled to Bill Cleary in right field but will be thinking of Coughlin's hit. Tamm at home and the result was that the ball slipped out of his hands and Tamm walked in while Thorpe batted for third. Tyler whipped the ball over to third to catch Thorpe and was successful on a very close play. Tyler went to second on the play and scored on a single by McGinnis to center field.

Steady as a Clock
Tyler was as steady as a clock in the pitcher's box. Up to the fifth, the Cantabs had only one man left on bases. Tyler struck out O'Connor in the first inning and White in the second and then hung out the K. K. sign in the third on Roach. McCreehan and Gautreau in order, Cote and Woods fanned the breeze in the fourth and trampled started for Tyler in the fifth.

For the first time in a week, North Cambridge failed to have the luck. This was shown in the fifth after White singled to left, Cleary fanned him at second and went to third on a double to right by Roach. McCreehan fanned and Gautreau was intentionally walked to fill the bases with three on. Sheridan had a chance in the sixth. He made Tyler pitch and work to three and two only to find that Tyler was able to hook over that important third strike to retire the side.

With two on, in the sixth, the Cantabs lost another chance when Duval made a double killing to McGinnis. The score:

TO OPEN ROLLER SKATING SEASON
Great interest is being displayed in the formal opening of the local roller skating season at the Crescent rink, 700 North Street, tomorrow. Sessions will be held in the afternoon and evening and indications point to large crowds turning out to welcome the return of the enjoyable sport.

During the summer months the rink has undergone repairs while the skaters, etc. have been gone over. All are in perfect condition. Everything is now in readiness for a busy season. From time to time during the season a number of novel features are to be introduced.

FRANCE VS. AUSTRALIA IN TENNIS DOUBLES

BROOKLINE, Sept. 5.—France and Australia, tied at one point each after the first day's play in the inter-continental Davis cup tennis final, will face each other in a doubles match at the Longwood Cricket club here today. Jacques Brugnon, known as France's leading doubles player, will team with René Lacoste against Gerald Patterson and Pat O'Hara Wood.

The French pair is the same combination which carried Anderson and Hawkes of the Australian finalists last year to 7-9 in the fifth set before accomplishing defeat. In 1922 they also put up a desperate fight, being defeated 10-8 in the fifth set. The Australian pair will face their third severe test on American courts this year in this match. In the national doubles tournament they defeated William M. Johnston and Clarence J. Griffin, the California pair, in a five-set match but were defeated in the finals by the Kinsey brothers, Howard O. and Robert, also of California, in another five-set match.

The defeat of Patterson by Lacoste in singles yesterday, in spite of Wood's unexpected victory over Jean Borotra, holder of the British singles title, places emphasis on the result of today's match. The 6-6 tie, which the United States is challenged to round will not, however, be decided until tomorrow when Lacoste will play Wood and Patterson will be admitted to the match.

William T. Elden, five-year holder of the American singles title, it was announced last night, will team with Norman Brookes, the Australian veteran, in an exhibition doubles match following the French-Australian match.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE GAME AT ALUMNI FIELD

Tomorrow afternoon at Alumni field, the Bellevues of the City Twilight League, and the C. M. A. C. of the Lowell Twilight League will endeavor to entertain local fandom in a red-hot ball game. The clash is the outcome of a spirited argument as to which team has the better nine, and the game has been arranged to decide this question.

The Bellevues, having annexed the bunting in the City League, will go after their rival brethren intent on showing their superiority. In all probability, they will be a hammer on the pitching staffs in the effort to attain their end. If track is right, and generally he is, the C. M. A. C. will have a lot to think about.

It will not be a one-way affair, however. The C. M. A. C. fresh from a successful attack on other teams in the Lowell Twilight League, boasts of several classy performers. They displayed fast form in getting to the top rung of their league ladder, and hope to win the bunting in the play-off of the tie now existing with the Chelmsford A. A. From all indications, then, Saturday's game should be a hammer from beginning to end and one of the largest Alumni field gatherings of the year is anticipated. Play will be started at 3 o'clock sharp. Children under fourteen will be admitted free.

At a meeting of Managers Fleming and Baker last night, it was agreed that Bobby Keeler will umpire and that the following players will be eligible:

C. M. A. C.: J. Marcotte, Ledue, Gendron, St. Jean, Klutka, Lavole, Gagnon, Beaudin, Tardif, Benier, Poirault, Desmarais and Cornellier. Bellevues: R. Jenkins, P. Purcell, P. Williams, Buckley, D. Bradbury, J. O'Brien, E. Gath, L. McHale, L. Lawson, B. Trask, H. Garrity, Dobbins, J. Livingston.

HOME FOLKS PAY TRIBUTE TO "POP" GEERS

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 5.—Edward F. ("Pop") Geers, veteran rainman, killed on the track at Wheeling, W. Va. Wednesday, when his horse stumbled and fell, came home today to receive the acclaim of his home folk at the funeral of his last and greatest race winner in the gruelling contest of life.

Simply—the very symbol of the life he lived—marked the last sad rites for the picturesque rainman.

At the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wallace W. Cunningham, with whom he had lived for many years, a brief funeral service was conducted by the Rev. William Parker Nelson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, assisted by the Rev. Edward C. Gown of Pittsburgh, "Pop's" son-in-law.

The body will be forwarded to Columbus, Tenn., for burial tomorrow.

GOLDEN COVE FAIR PLANS IN THE MOULDING

Plans for the second Lowell fair, to be held at Golden Cove park on the last three days of next week, are progressing very favorably. Entries are coming in for installation on the benches provided for the exhibition of farm products of all kinds. Department heads say the agricultural exhibit, the poultry show and other regular exhibitions will be larger than ever. All communications in connection with exhibits and entries should be addressed to Frank E. McLean, secretary of the fair, 27 Central street, Lowell.

The society will provide horse racing on each of the three days of the fair. Chelmsford band will play each day, and on Friday there will be the annual horse show, with splendid entries coming to delight men, women and children and all horse fanciers, who delight to pick their favorites in the big ring. Dr. J. H. Sparks is chairman of the committee directing the horse exhibit. On Saturday, the Lowell Kennel club stages a dog show that will exhibit a host of fancy varieties representing many sections of New England's kennelmen.

HARPS OF LAWRENCE AND MARIE'S AMERICANS

The third and deciding game of the series between Marie's Americans of this city and Harps of Lawrence will be staged on the South common tomorrow afternoon when the C. M. A. C. Harps will play a three-game series with the Lawrence A. A. and the winner will then clash with the Bellevues for a purse of $100. Nullo, Regan or Gibbons will work in the box tomorrow, while the remainder of the lineup will include Freddie Crowe, O'Day, Ennis, Gleason, Daley, Barron, Souza, Carr, Brodeur and Tommy Green.

LOWELL TWILIGHT LEAGUE

The tie for first place in the Lowell Twilight League will be broken next Sunday afternoon when the C. M. A. C. and the Chelmsford A. A. rival contenders for pennant honors, will meet in a championship game on the South common. Chelmsford tied with the C. M. A. C. by defeating the Centralville Princeton at Silesia park last Saturday afternoon.

85 BIKE RIDERS COMPETE 39 States Represented in National Amateur Bicycle Championships

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Eighty-five riders from 39 states are entered to ride in the national amateur bicycle championships today and tomorrow in Humboldt park. First heats will be run at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The riders are the pick of 1137 who entered state elimination trials.

Charles Barclay of San Jose, Calif., winner of last year's national competition at Chicago, was eliminated this year in the California (tryouts by Alvin Drysdale of Fresno). This afternoon's program includes heats and finals in the quarter mile junior, mile senior, mile junior, unpaired and five-mile senior unpaired. Tomorrow's program includes the one-third mile junior, one-third mile senior, two-mile junior open and ten-mile senior open.

SILESIA DEFEATED BY GARDNER TEAM

Silesia lost to Gardner, 11 to 4, at North Chelmsford last night. Paeky Noonan, recently returned from a campaign in New Brunswick, pitched for Silesia, but the visitors a hard hitting aggregation. Gardner batted him for 12 safeties. Silesia is preparing for a five-game series with Abbott Worsted. The score:

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 16

Jack grew tired of sitting up on the queer seat so he flopped down on his back. Looking up into the huge trees he saw some tiny forms jumping from limb to limb. Then there came a chorus of squeals and shrieks. The coming of the explorers had startled a little band of African monkeys.

"Oh!" shouted Jack, "I'd like to have one of those little fellows for a pet." "You would, would you?" laughed the captain. "Well, we'll see about that the next time we stop." In the meantime Flip also saw the little monkeys and he sat up on his haunches and started to howl loudly.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Olive Roberts Barton

BELINDA BUNNY GETS A DRESS

NANCY GOT DOWN ON HER KNEES TO MEASURE BELINDA BUNNY.

"Nancy, Nick & Company" were soon doing a big business in the little shop in the woods.

As Mrs. Bunny said, Belinda for one was as ragged as a rag-bag. She had been visiting her cousin, the Cotton-tails, all summer and had just got home and a night, who was. And if the Twins hadn't started in business when they did, Belinda would have had to stay in bed.

"I just told her," said Mrs. Cotton-tail. "I just said to Belinda, I said, 'You're a disgrace, so you are. Master Scratches Scratch won't think of letting you come into school looking like a scare-crow. He doesn't like any fancy do-funnies, but he does like children to be clean and neat.' For goodness sake—what's the matter with you? You're scratching like an old hen. What's wrong?"

"It's mosquito bites, ma," said Belinda, scratching her leg with the end of her other foot. "The mosquitoes at Aunt Carrie Cotton-tail's house were something awful, so they were. She didn't have any screens or mosquito netting over her windows and I got all bit up."

"I think it's time school was starting," said Mrs. Bunny in a shocked voice. "Your grammar is dreadful. But what kind of talk is that?"

"But they do, it's something awful," said poor Belinda, scratching a bite under her chin. "It's worse than the time I was vaccinated."

Just then Ben Bunny Jr. stuck his head in at the door and sang out:

"She's got the hives and she's awful fat. And she's come back home where her baby doll's at."

"Get along with you," cried Mrs. Bunny, rushing over to the door. "It's your turn next, young man. And your grammar is worse than your sister's. Baby-doll's at! I feel like fainting!"

"What kind of a dress would you like to have for her?" asked Nancy, who felt sorry for Mrs. Bunny with such a scare-crow child.

"I think I'll have a striped dress cut on the bias, trimmed with polka-dots and chiffon. Something plain like that," said Mrs. Bunny. "I never did believe in fancy things for children."

"All right," said Nancy, who thought it was pretty fancy after all in spite of what the rabbit lady said. But she knew that you couldn't go against what customers wanted, no matter how it sounded to you.

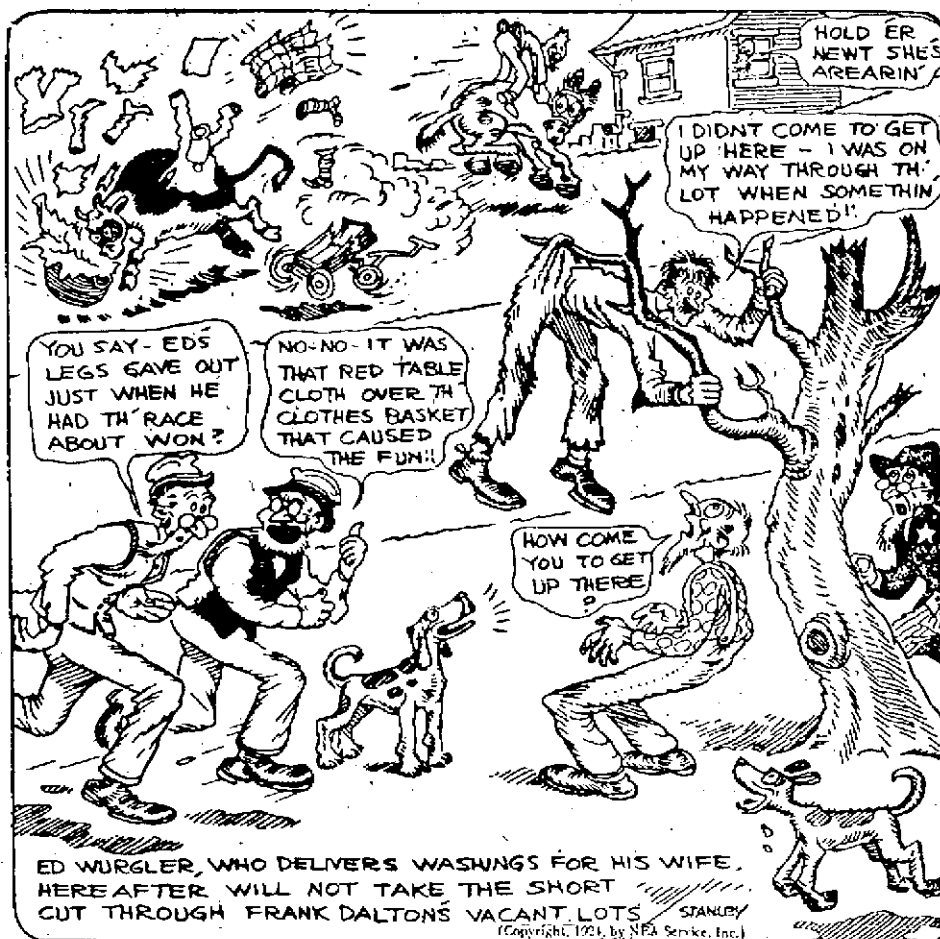

"Just step to the back of the store, please," she said. "And Mister Snip Snip will show you some of the dress goods. You can buy whatever you like and I'll take your daughter's measure while you are gone."

"All right," said Mrs. Bunny, ustling away.

Nancy got her tape-measure and got down on her knees to measure Belinda Bunny.

"Oooo! Ouch!" said the little bunny girl, wriggling all over. "I just can't stand still. These bites are something fierce."

Just then they heard Mrs. Bunny say, "I'll make four yards of this orange silk with the red and purple stripes."

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The old days so famous for adventure and down in history as the days of the birth of the American nation, have been turned back and are with us again in "The Covered Wagon," James Cruze's latest Paramount production, playing at the Merrimack Square theatre all this week at popular prices.

The great stretch of the western plains forms a most magnificent background, and five hundred or more covered wagons or "prairie schooners," add greatness to this colossal picture. True, it is a love story, but this one is different. It is a love tale of the desert wastes, long and enduring with its thrilling climax, leading to the reunion of the young couple, played by Lois Wilson and J. Warren Kerrigan, in a frontier homestead in Oregon. "The Covered Wagon" eclipses anything in picture comedy and the latest International News complete the bill.

Superintendent of Streets
Censured for Departing
From Work Schedule

City Engineer Makes Suggestion Relative to Street
Lighting Emergencies

Board Receives Request for
the Paving of Willie Street
—Other Business

Supt. Harry Doherty of the street department was censured by members of the public service board at a meeting yesterday afternoon, for leaving a section of Branch st. other than according to the way instructed by the board. City Engineer Kearney notified the board that a section of Branch street, between the car tracks, was being paved with granite blocks without any foundation, whereas the board's vote was that a cement foundation be provided. After a lengthy discussion during which the members took the superintendent to task for changing the work schedule without the board's permission, the matter was referred for a vote.

Arrangements were made by the board, at the suggestion of City Engineer Kearney, so that in the future the heads of the police and fire departments and the public service board will have the right to order street lights turned on in case of necessity at other times than according to the lighting schedule.

The meeting was called to order at 4 p. m. with all members present. Councillor Eugene Fitzgerald and

William A. Walsh of the Broadway club appeared before the board to request the paving of Willie street from Cross to Fletcher streets, and Cross street from Willie to Fletcher street. The request was taken under advisement and the engineer requested to prepare an estimate.

The councillor also called attention to a dangerous crossing existing in Fletcher street, due to excavation made for street paving. He suggested that a board walk be placed at this point, and also at Broadway and Fletcher street while paving is under way. The superintendent of streets was instructed to take care of this matter.

He also requested the closing of Willie street. The board voted to allow the street before taking any action.

The repair of several holes in Clare and Oliver streets was requested by John E. Reppan, and Supt. Doherty was instructed to make necessary repairs.

City Engineer Complains
City Engineer Stephen Kearney notified the board that the paving of the section of Branch street between the car rails is being done in violation of the public service board's vote. He said that granite block paving is being put in there without a foundation and the board voted to lay blocks on a cement foundation.

Supt. Doherty said it would be a good job without the foundation and that as one-third of the work is completed, it would be a mistake to change now. The engineer maintained that while it might be a good job without the cement foundation, it would not be as good as with the foundation, and asked the board either to pass a new vote to have the work done without the foundation or else enforce its previous vote.

Chairman Murphy said to Supt. Doherty that he should have taken the matter up with the board before doing work in violation of the board's instructions, and the other members also objected to the superintendent's action. Mr. Meloy was of the opinion that the work should be done right, but Mr. Leary asked if it would be good policy to tear up the part already done. After a further discussion along these lines, the matter was referred for a vote before taking any action.

The George W. Fifield Estate
At Revere Beach, Mass.

The Administrators of the estate of George W. Fifield, desirous of making final disposition of the remaining holdings of the estate, in order that the same may be settled, have selected to sell by Public Auction, on Wednesday, September 10, 1924, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, the SIX DISTINCT AND SEPARATE PARCELS OF LAND, AS SHOWN ON PLAN OF LAND SITUATED ON OCEAN AVENUE IN REVERE BEACH, MASS.

THE SALE WILL TAKE PLACE ON THE PREMISES AND WILL BE SOLD IN SIX SEPARATE PARCELS, COMMENCING WITH LOT NO. 1, AND FOLLOWING IN ORDER. The right will be given, however, to purchase the entire tract in one lot.

Parcel No. 1 has a total area of 28,685 square feet, with a frontage of 158.60 feet on Ocean Avenue, and 81.67 feet on the Boston, Revere Beach and Lynn Railroad.

Parcel No. 2 has a frontage of 160 feet on Ocean Avenue, and 185.42 feet on the Boston, Revere Beach and Lynn Railroad, and a total area of 49,751 square feet.

Parcel No. 3 has an area of 35,655 square feet, with a frontage on Ocean Avenue of 150 feet, and 185.42 feet on the railroad.

Parcel No. 4 has a frontage on Ocean Avenue of 150 feet, with a total area of 27,697 square feet, and a frontage of 185.42 feet on the railroad.

Parcel No. 5 contains a lot area of 13,537 square feet, with a frontage on Ocean Avenue of 165 feet, and 170.27 on the railroad.

Parcel No. 6 has 51.49 feet frontage on the railroad, and a 50 foot frontage on Ocean Avenue, with a total area of 4255 square feet.

The six lots have a total area of 158,731 feet, and have a total frontage of 913.60 feet on Ocean Avenue.

This entire tract of land is situated within 250 feet of the Revere Beach Boulevard, and about 350 feet of the beach itself. The location at the entrance to Revere Beach, with a frontage of 859.89 feet on the Boston, Revere Beach and Lynn Railroad, presents an unusual beach development possibility. With the rumored widening of the present beach boulevard, it will necessarily mean the demolition of the present row of amusement, business and hotel sites, and the moving backward of these various enterprises, thus bringing this particular parcel virtually on the boulevard, and the value of the land, if such a development matures, will naturally be enhanced to many times its present value. This tract of land is perhaps the only remaining undeveloped large plot available at Revere Beach. The lot is divided into six parcels, therefore the opportunity is given to all to secure either one or more of the lots. The lots as shown on the plan are splendidly dimensioned, with unusual frontages and proper depths. The location in Massachusetts Street Railway Company, backyards of it as a location for any beach purpose, either for summer home, year round residence, amusement, hotel and the like. Because of its size, the promoter of any large amusement enterprise, requiring extensive area, is given the chance to purchase at open competition this unusual tract. The opportunity is rarely, if ever, presented to buy such an amount of vacant land, as seldom is as large a tract held by any one estate, and more particularly a beach property.

TERMS OF SALE: 25% of the purchase price must be deposited in cash, or satisfactorily secured to the auctioneer, as soon as it is struck off. Other terms made known at the sale.

By Order of JAMES J. KERWIN and JOHN P. WRIGHT, Administrators with the will annexed of George W. Fifield.

The same lines, the matter was referred for a vote before taking any action.

In connection with the Hall and Alken street widening, the city engineer said the city solicitor desired a conference between a representative of the board, the solicitor, and owners of the property, and Mr. Meloy was named as the board's representative.

Very Good Suggestion

Mr. Kearney called attention to a condition which existed Tuesday evening when a storm caused darkness to envelop the city exceptionally early.

He said on that evening fire apparatus was called to Centralville and it was so dark, no street lights being turned on, that policemen in Bridge street had to use their flash-lights to direct automobilists out of the way of the fire apparatus. It was a very dangerous situation, he said, and he suggested that the heads of the fire and police departments be granted authority to order street lights turned on at times other than provided by schedule should there be any necessity.

Members of the board favored his suggestion and it was voted to grant the man in charge of the fire and police departments, also the chairman of the public service board, the right to order street lights turned on whenever necessary.

Communications were received from Councillor Arthur B. Chadwick in regard to the installation of new lights in his district and also requesting the paving of Lincoln street this year, as provided in this year's program. The communications were referred to the proper department heads.

The meeting adjourned at 5.30 o'clock to Monday at 12.30 p. m.

CELEBRATE OPENING OF

Within a few months after the 10th anniversary of its organization, Club Lafayette, its members and their friends, celebrated last night the opening of the new club quarters at Merrimack and Cabot streets. It was a thoroughly enjoyable occasion, conducted informally, which brought out the full membership of the club, including the out-of-town members, the mayor, and other invited guests and a splendid program of entertainment was given.

The best proof, however, of the popularity of the club and its wisdom in its choice of a new location, as well as its taste in building the new place into a club, is that so many new applications came in last night that the restricted membership of 100 is probably more than attained, and there is probably also a waiting list. The club, which sold the old Bowens castle in Wannaland street last spring, has taken a 10-year lease of the brick building at Merrimack and Cabot streets, a place admirably suited to the convenience of the club members. Of the two floors, which they occupy, however, little else than the main part of the old building, both floors have been refitted with steel beams, partitions have been taken out, and the entire inside of the structure rebuilt. The second floor, which is now the club's first floor, has been made into one large club room, with plenty of easy chairs, plenty of smoking stands, two pool tables, two open fireplaces, and semi-indirect lighting of the most modern type. The club's second floor contains a dining-room, parlor, kitchen and washroom.

The building committee was headed by F. N. Labella as chairman, Joseph A. Gagnon, Z. A. Normandin and President Arthur J. Lambert, ex-officio. On the occasion of the official opening of the club last night, the committee had prepared a brilliant program. It included an exhibition game of pool given by Andrew St. Jean, a Lowell boy who was runner up in last year's national pool tournament, and who got fourth place in the finals.

St. Jean was given Andre Bouthillier of the club as a victim, and afterward displayed some trick shooting that was almost magical in some respects. Also on the program were songs by Arthur Giroux, A. Howard, piano selections by Rodolphe E. Pepin, organist and choir director of St. Jean Baptiste church; Attorney O. M. Tremblay of Nashua, and a turn of card tricks by Napoleon Dammers as good as many seen on the big vaudeville circuit.

There was also plenty of community singing, with Alfred Ducharme sustaining solos, accompanied by former Mayor Norbert Decelles of Woonsocket, R. I., one of the guests of the evening. A splendid buffet luncheon, available throughout the evening, was served in the dining-room upstairs.

Among the out-of-town guests present were A. J. Cattabriga, G. M. Tremblay, E. Labrie and E. Belanger of Nashua, N. H., George E. Langevin and David Gagnon of Lynn, Alfred Fortin of Haverhill and former Mayor Norbert Decelles of Woonsocket, high in the ranks of the French-American Artisans.

The present officers of the club are: President, Arthur J. Lambert; vice-president, Joseph A. Gagnon; treasurer, Emile J. Gagnon; secretary, Wilfred A. Achin; directors, Alphonse A. Couture, Z. A. Normandin, F. N. Labella, Moritz Doyle and X. A. Delisle.

PRESENTED WATCH

Mr. Albert Ducharme has severed his connection with The Gagnon company shoe department to accept a position with the United Fruit company in Central America. On leaving Saturday night, Mr. Ducharme was presented a watch by his co-workers.

CONDITION IMPROVED

The many friends of John B. Logan, who was injured in an automobile accident several weeks ago, will be pleased to hear that his condition is greatly improved.

TELEPHONE ALARMS
Two telephone alarms were received at the Central fire station this morning, the first at 11.15 for a fire in the textile school dump, and the second at 11.37 for a grass fire near Easter street.
